[25th November 1814.]

WHEREAS it is just that Petty Officers, Seamen and Marines, should be rewarded for long and faithful Service; And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent, have, by virtue of the several Laws now in force, Power and Authority to grant Out Pensions for the Relief and Support of Petty Officers, Seamen and Marines, serving, or who may have served on board the Ships and Vessels of His Majesty, who, on account of the Length of their Service and their good and faithful Conduct, may be deserving thereof; unless such Seamen and Marines shall have become worn out or decrepit in His Majesty's Service; and it is therefore expedient that such Doubts should be removed, and effectual Provision made for enabling the said Commissioners and Governors to grant such Pensions and Rewards; And Whereas it is also expedient that the Funds belonging to the Clerk at Greenwich should be transferred to and incorporated with the Funds of Greenwich Hospital, and be hereafter administered by the Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital, for the Purposes aforesaid, and the other Purposes of the said Hospital: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich Hospital, by and out of their perfect Funds, and by and out of any Funds which may be by this Act, or at any time hereafter, given or transferred to or to the Use of the said Royal Hospital, to grant Pensions, Remunerations or Allowances, to Petty Officers, Seamen and Marines, who on account of the Length of their Service and good and faithful Conduct may be deemed deserving thereof, in the manner as Pensions, Remunerations and Allowances, are now granted to Petty Officers, Seamen and Marines, who have been wounded or become disabled or worn out in His Majesty's Service.

IX. And Whereas it is by an Act made in the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to provide for regulating the warehousing of Spirits distilled from Corn in Ireland for Exportation, without Payment of the Duty of Excise chargeable thereon; and to transfer the Custody of Spirits so warehoused from the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland and their Officers, to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and Taxes in Ireland and their Officers, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for Distillers to warehouse Spirits for Exportation, subject to such Rules and Regulations as the Commissioners of Excise shall from time to time direct or order; and Doubts may be entertained whether the Strength of such Spirits is to be warehoused may be ascertained is and by such Rules and Regulations; for the obtaining of such Doubts, he is declared and enacted, That in and by any Rules and Regulations made or to be made by the said Commissioners of Excise, it shall and may be lawful to specify and ascertain the Strength at which any such Spirits may be warehoused, not being less than the Strength at which the same are allowed to be warehoused under the said recited Act; and that any Rules and Regulations which shall have been or shall be made by the said Commissioners for such Purpose shall be good, valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

X. And Whereas by one other Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to amend the several Acts for regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that every Distiller from Corn or Grains shall, within Seven Days next after the Wednesday in the Fourth Week of the respective Periods of Four Weeks in the last Aft mentioned, produce and deliver, or cause to be produced and delivered, to the Officer in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, an Account of the Quantity of Malt actually permitted to the Malt Kieve of such Distiller within the Four Weeks ending on and including such Wednesday; and that if it shall appear that the Quantity of Malt so permitted shall be less than after the Rate of One Barrel of Malt for every Twenty four Gallons of Spirits which such Distiller shall distil, or shall be charged or chargeable with from all Wash brewed or made by him within such last mentioned Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, ending on such Sunday, then in such case every such Distiller shall for every Barrel of such Deficiency forfeit as in the last Aft recited Act is mentioned; And Whereas it is expedient that instead of the Account by the said Act directed, that every Distiller should be required to deliver an Account of the Quantity of Malt actually permitted to the Malt Kieve of such Distiller in every such Period of Four Weeks as in the said Aft mentioned, ending on Friday instead of Wednesday, as is directed by the said Act; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Distiller shall, within Seven Days next after the Friday in every Fourth Week of the Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days during which any Still or Stills of such Distiller shall be chargeable as working, produce and deliver, or cause to be produced and delivered, to the Officer in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, an Account of the Quantity of Malt actually permitted to the Malt Kieve of such Distiller, within the Four Weeks ending on and including such Friday; and if upon such Account, and the Permits which shall have been granted for the permitting of such Quantity of Malt into the Malt Kieve of such Distiller, it shall appear that the Quantity of Malt so permitted shall be less than after the Rate of One Barrel of Malt for every Twenty four Gallons of Spirits which such Distiller shall have distilled or shall be charged or chargeable with by Law in the Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, ending on the Sunday next succeeding such Friday (being the Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days within which the Still of such Distiller shall be chargeable as working), then in such case every such Distiller shall for every Barrel of such Deficiency of Quantity of Malt forfeit and pay the Sum of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence British Currency; and if any Distiller shall not produce and deliver or cause to be produced and delivered any such Account to such Officer within the time aforesaid, every such Distiller shall for every Twenty four Gallons of Spirits which such Distiller shall have distilled, or shall be charged or chargeable with by Law within such Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, ending on such Sunday, forfeit and pay the Sum of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence British Currency; which said several Sums or Penalties shall be paid, distributed, remitted and applied in the same manner in all respects as the several Sums, Penalties and Forfeitures of Nineteen Shillings and Six pence British Currency mentioned in the said recited Act are thereby directed to be paid, distributed, remitted or applied.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Regulations, Provisions, Matters and Things contained in the said recited Act with respect to the Payment by any Distiller of the Duty on a Quantity of Malt equal to the Quantity which should appear deficient under the said Act, shall be applied and put in Practice with respect to any Deficiency of Malt which shall appear in any Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days under this Act; and that if any Distiller shall in the Account hereby required to be delivered submit a greater Quantity of Malt as having been distilled, used or consumed by such Distiller within the Period mentioned in such Account than such Quantity as shall appear to have been consumed within the said Period in the Stock Account of Malt made or received by such Distiller, every such Distiller shall, for every Barrel of such Excess of Malt, forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings; and that every Collector or Perce in charge of the Collection of the Duties shall within Seven Days next after the Friday in every such Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days require such Distiller to take and subscribe in manner by the said Act directed the Oath or Affirmation of the Truth and Purport therein set forth; and that in every such Oath or Affirmation Friday shall be instead of Wednesday; any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and if any Distiller being thereto required, shall neglect or refuse to take and subscribe such Oath or Affirmation, such Distiller shall be subject to the like Penalty as any Distiller would by the said Act be subject to for neglecting or refusing to take and subscribe the Oath or Affirmation therein mentioned.

XII. And be it further enacted, That in each of the said last mentioned Acts made in the last Session of Parliament, as respects each Part or Parts of an Act made in the Fifty third Year of His present Majesty's

Reign,

Reign, intitled An Act to amend the several Acts for regulating the Distillation of Spirits in Ireland, as empowered the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, to make any Allowance to any Distiller, or to abate the Quantity of Spirits wherewith any Distiller may be chargeable by Law in any Period of Four Weeks in Consideration of any Loss by any Fatality or Accident, shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed; and that, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to make any Allowance to any Distiller, or to abate the Quantity of Spirits wherewith any Distiller may have been or shall be chargeable in Consideration of any Loss by Fatality or Accident, in the same manner and upon the like Terms and Conditions, and subject to the Approbation of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, as the said Commissioners are authorized to do by the said recited Act of the Fifty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign; any thing in the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for every Distiller who shall have been or shall be intended to keep any Still to set up or erect any other Still (a) in the Place and Strand of the Still which such Distiller shall have been or shall be intended to keep, although such Still so to be set up and erected may not have been previously lodged in the Excise Office of the District; any thing in an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend the several Acts for regulating and securing the Collection of the Duty on Spirits distilled in Ireland, to the contrary notwithstanding; and that in every such case every such Distiller who shall be set up or erect, or shall have set up or erected any such Still, shall be deemed to have been chargeable, and such Distiller shall be and continue chargeable in all respects as if the Still which had been intended had continued in Work; and every such Distiller and his Successors shall be subject and liable accordingly; and it shall not be necessary for any such Distiller to take out a Licence for such Still which shall be set up or erected in the Place and Strand of the Still which shall have been or shall be intended, unless such Distiller shall be required by the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, or any Three of them, to take out a Licence for such second or other Still, and which the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to require, whenever they shall think it expedient; and every such Distiller, when so required, shall be bound to take out a Licence for such second or other Still, and in Default of so doing, shall be deemed and taken to be to all Intents and Purposes an undelivered Distiller, and liable to all Penalties and Forfeitures accordingly as such: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to reduce or abate any Charge against such Distiller, in the like Manner and on the like Account as such Commissioners are by Law allowed to reduce or abate any Charge against any Distiller.

(a) [See post. c. 111. § 6.]

XIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to authorize any Distiller to receive hops, or have or keep in his Distillery, any such second or other Still, until such Distiller shall have removed and sent away out of his Distillery and Premises in any manner connected therewith, such former Still, in the Place and Strand of which such second or other Still shall be intended to be set up or erected.

XV. And be it further enacted, That Spirits made or distilled in Ireland, and which shall have been or shall be intended according to Law in any of His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores in Ireland, without Payment of the Duty of Excise payable thereon in Ireland, shall not be delivered out of or removed from any such Warehouse or Stores for Exportation, at any time of the Day before the Hour of Nine in the Forenoon, or after the Hour of Two in the Afternoon, nor at any Hour upon any Excise Office or Custom House Holiday; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVI. And Whereas in and by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things, under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if upon the Account taken by the Officer in charge of the Distillery of any Distiller of any Wash, Pot Ale or Singhaga, brewed or made or found in such Distillery within any Period of Four Weeks, such Distiller shall be chargeable by Law with a greater Quantity of Spirits than such Distiller is by the said recited Act authorized or allowed to make or distil within such Period, the Officer shall charge Double Duty for every Gallon of such Excess of Spirits, and that such Distiller shall pay the said Duty, and also forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds: And Whereas Distillers are by Law allowed a certain time for the distilling of Wash or Pot Ale after the Day the same shall have been brewed, by reason whereof they may within any Period of Four Weeks have in their Distilleries Quantities of Wash or Pot Ale intended for and applicable to the making of Spirits to be distilled in the subsequent Period of Four Weeks: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Officer to include in any such Account any Wash, Pot Ale or Singhaga, which shall not have been respectively fermented within such Period of Four Weeks in which he shall have taken such Account; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding. [See in sec. 10. of 54 G. 3. c. 120. post. c. 111. § 6.]

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any Distiller shall in any Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days make or distil any greater Quantity of Spirits than such Distiller is by the last Act recited Act respectively authorized and allowed to make or distil in such Period, and that it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, that such Excess of Spirits was accidental, and was occasioned by circumstances against which such Distiller could not reasonably have provided; then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to order that such Distiller shall not be liable to the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds in the said Act mentioned for such Excess, who shall thereupon be freed and discharged from the said Penalty, and the Single Duty by Law chargeable on Spirits, and no more, shall be payable on such Excess; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

WHEREAS by an Act, made in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five, certain Rates and Duties, and to allow certain Drawbacks and Bounties, upon Goods, Wares and Merchandize, imported into and exported from Ireland, in lieu of former Rates and Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties; and by the Schedule marked (C.) to the said Act annexed, certain Duties of One Pound Ten Shillings and of Four Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the Value of Goods, Wares and Merchandize of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Ireland (except as in the said Act and Schedule mentioned) were imposed upon the Exportation of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize from Ireland; and which said Duties were equal in Amount to like Duties imposed on Goods of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain exported from Great Britain; but Part of which said Duties in Great Britain, being Temporary or War Duties, have expired; and it is therefore just and reasonable that such Duties only should be imposed in Ireland on the Exportation from thence of Goods, Wares and Merchandize, as shall not exceed the Duties now existing in Great Britain on the Exportation from thence of Goods, Wares and Merchandize, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Eighteenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon the Exportation from Ireland of all Goods, Wares and Merchandize, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Ireland, the several Duties of Customs for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value thereof as are assessed and set forth in the Schedule marked (A.) to this Act annexed, (except as in the said Schedule is excepted) in lieu and full Satisfaction of the several Duties of One Pound Ten Shillings and Four Pounds payable in Ireland upon the Exportation of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value thereof, under or by virtue of the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or the Schedule marked (C.) to the said recited Act annexed, or of any Act or Acts for continuing the said Act in force in Ireland at the time of the passing of this Act, but in Addition to the several Duties charged on certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize, of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Ireland, enumerated in the Schedule marked (C.) annexed to the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign; and that the Duties of One Pound Ten Shillings and Four Pounds payable under the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and the said Schedule marked (C.) to the said Act annexed, upon any such Goods, Wares and Merchandize in respect of the Value thereof, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable.

II. And Whereas by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to grant to His Majesty Rates and Duties, and to allow Drawbacks and Bounties on certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize imported into and exported from Ireland in lieu of former Rates and Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties it is, enough other things, provided, that whenever it shall happen that any of the Duties of Customs or Excise in Great Britain granted or made payable by any Act in force in Great Britain at the time of the passing of the said recited Act, upon any Articles on which any Duty is imposed by the said Act, or the Schedule to the said Act annexed, or any Part of such Duties, in Great Britain, shall cease or determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, Provision shall be made that so much of the Duties of Customs granted by the said recited Act and made payable in Ireland as shall be equal to the Duties which shall cease or determine or be repealed as aforesaid in Great Britain, shall, in like manner, cease or determine or be repealed, and shall not be payable in Ireland at any time after the time when such Duties of Customs or Excise shall cease or determine or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, and that the Duties of Customs made payable by the said recited Act shall be reduced accordingly: And Whereas certain Temporary or War Duties on the Exportation from Great Britain of certain of the Articles, Matters and Things mentioned and set forth in the Schedule marked (B.) annexed to the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, have ceased and determined, and are no longer payable: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Eighteenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid into His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon the Exportation from Ireland to any Country or Place, except Great Britain, of the several Goods, Wares and Merchandises mentioned, expressed and set forth in the Schedule marked (B.) to this Act annexed, the several Duties and Sums of Money in the said Schedule to this Act annexed, mentioned, set forth and expressed, in like and full Satisfaction of all Duties payable in Ireland on the Exportation from thence of Goods, Wares and Merchandises of the like Sorts, under or by virtue of the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, or of the said Schedule marked (B.) to the said recited Act annexed; and that, from and after the passing of this Act, all Duties payable under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, or the said Schedule marked (B.) thereto annexed, upon the Exportation of the several Goods, Wares and Merchandises mentioned, specified and expressed in the Schedule marked (B.) to this Act annexed, shall cease and determine and be no longer paid or payable.

III. And be it further enacted, That all the Duties in this Act and in the respective Schedules hereto annexed, specified, mentioned and contained, shall be paid and payable, and received and receivable in British Currency: and that all the said Duties shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland; and that all the said Duties in the said Schedules specified, mentioned and contained, shall be paid and received upon the several Articles and Things in this Act and the respective Schedules hereto annexed, specified, mentioned and contained, according to the Tons, Weights, Measures or Value of the said Articles respectively specified, and also in Proportion upon any greater or less Number, Weight, Quantity, Measure or Value of such Articles, Matters and Things respectively.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the several Rates and Duties by this Act granted and made payable, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid and applied, in the same Manner and under such Powers and Authorities, Penalties and Forfeitures, and by such ways and methods, and under such Rules and Directions, as are appointed, directed and expressed for the raising, collecting, levying and paying, and managing of Duties payable on Goods, Wares and Merchandises imported into and exported from Ireland, or for the levying and applying any Taxes, Penalties or Forfeitures in and by an Act of Parliament made in Ireland in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for raising the Excise or new Imposts upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, according to the Bank of Rises therein intituled; or in and by an Act made in the Tenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things, under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Ireland Excise and Taxes in Ireland; or in and by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to the Revenue of Customs and Excise, or either of them, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers and Authorities, Rules and Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures, were herein expressed and enacted, with the Alteration of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved as in and by the said Act passed in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, or in and by any other Act or Acts as aforesaid, is provided.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all cases as aforesaid wherein a Lord Ordinary shall see Cause for Issues to be directed to be tried by a Jury, he shall take the Cause verbally to report to the Division of the Court to which such Ordinary belongs, in that the said Division may determine whether such Issue shall be sent to the said Court to be tried by a Jury, or shall dispose of the Cause, as in Manner and Form as at present practised.

WHEREAS the Laws now in force, are found insufficient for the Correction of the Disproportion which now exist, or which may from time to time take place, in the Assessments of County Rates; Be it hereby enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of the several Counties in that Part of Great Britain called England, assembled at their General or Quarter Sessions, or at any Adjournment or Adjournments thereof, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, whenever Complainces shall appear to require it, to order and direct a fair and equal County Rate to be made, for all the Parishes to which the County Stock or Rate is now or shall hereafter be made liable by Law, according to the Directions hereinafter mentioned; and for that Purpose, to assess and tax every Parish, Township and other Place, whether Parished or Extra-parochial, within the respective Limits of their Commissions, ratably and equally, according to a certain Pound Rate (to be from time to time fixed and publicly declared by such Justices) of the full and fair Annual Value of the Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, capable to the Relief of the Poor therein; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give any Jurisdiction to the Justices of the Peace of the said several Counties, over any Places situate within the Limits of any Liberties or Franchises having a separate Jurisdiction, which before the passing of this Act were subject to Rates in the outwre of County Rates imposed and assessed by the Justices of the Peace for such Liberties or Franchises, or which were exempt from the Rates of the County in which they lay, either in the Whole or in Part; nor to alter any Proportion of County Rate payable by any Liberty or Franchise being a separate Jurisdiction, as established between the County and the said Liberty or Franchise, provided such Exemption or Proportion shall have been enjoyed by or derived from Grant, Charter, or any special Local Act of Parliament; nor to compel any such Liberty or Franchise, paying to some One or more of the Rates specified in the Preamble of an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, entitled An Act for the more easy assessing, collecting and levying County Rates, to pay to any other Rate therein mentioned, to which such Liberty or Franchise was not liable to contribute before the passing of the said Act; nor to repeal or alter the Provisions of any Acts now in force which shall have fixed the Times and Places of holding any General or Annual General Sessions or Adjournment thereof, for the assessing the Rates of any County, or for the raising, levying or collecting the same, but that such Provisions be having the Time or Place of holding such General or Annual General Sessions or Adjournment thereof, and of then and there exclusively transacting the Business therein mentioned respecting the County Rates, shall be and remain in full Force; and that all the Matters and Things which is and by this Act are authorized to be done by the Justices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Sessions, or at any Adjournment or Adjournments thereof, shall be done and performed exclusively at such General or Annual General Sessions or at some Adjournment thereof, and at no other Time or Place than such as shall have been fixed by any such Act.

II. And, for the better enabling the said Justices to make such fair and equal County Rates, be it hereby further enacted, That it shall be lawful for them, at any General or Annual Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or at any Adjournment or Adjournments thereof (to be holden after the passing of this Act) and as often as they shall deem it expedient, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to issue Precepts, signed by their Chairman, or by the Clerk of the Peace under the Authority of the said Court, to the High Constables, Petty Constables, Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, Assessors and Collectors of Public Rates and Taxes of or for the several and respective Parishes, Townships and Places, whether Parished or otherwise, within their Jurisdiction, or to such and so many of them as to the said Justices shall seem expedient, requiring the said Constables, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, Assessors and Collectors respectively, to make Returns in Writing to the Justices of their respective Districts in Petty Sessions assembled (which Returns shall be sworn to Oath, at the time of Delivery, before any Two or more such Justices), of the Total Amount of the full and fair Annual Value of the several Estates and suitable Property within the Parish, Township or Place, whether Parished or otherwise, to which they respectively belong, charged or assessed to the Poor's Rate at the time of making such Returns, or liable so to be, or charged or assessed to any other Rate or Assessment, whether Parished or Public, without regard respectively to the actual Amounts or Rates assessed on the Property therein, free and except in such Parishes, Townships or Places only, where such Property is assessed to the full and fair estimated second productive Value.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Justices assembled at their General or Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, and they are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time, whenever they shall deem it expedient for the Purpose of this Act, also to make an Order or Orders for the Justices of the Peace, within the Limits of their Commissions, to meet from time to time within the several Districts in and for which they respectively act, and to fix therein the time of such First Meeting; and the said Justices in their respective Districts shall have Power to adjourn from time to time, until the Purpose of this Act shall be completed; and any Two or more such Justices, assembled at any such Meeting, shall receive the Returns of the said Constables, Churchwardens, Overseers, Assessors and Collectors, causing the same to be verified as before directed, and then and every or any of them to examine on Oath touching any Matters and Things contained in such Returns, as in the Judgment of the said Justices may appear necessary for the Purpose of this

A.D. and to report their Proceedings to the said Justices assembled at the next or any subsequent General or Quarter Sessions, as they shall have ordered and directed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Constable, Churchwarden, Overseer, Assessor or Collector aforesaid, shall neglect or make Default in making any such Return in manner aforesaid, to the Justices which shall be fixed by or under the Authority of the said Justices; then and in every such case, such and every such Constable, Churchwarden, Overseer, Assessor or Collector is neglecting and making Default (without sufficient Excuse to be allowed by the said Justices in their said General or Quarter Sessions), shall forfeit and pay such Sum and Sum of Money, not exceeding Twenty Pounds, as shall or may be ordered or adjudged by such Justices so assembled as aforesaid, to be levied on the Goods and Chattle of such and every Churchwarden and Overseer of the Poor so neglecting or making Default.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case of Default by not making due Returns of any Matter or Thing required by the Precept of the Justices in General or General Quarter Sessions assembled, or any Two or more of them, to issue their Precepts to any Officer or Officers before described, who shall have made such Default, to make their Returns in Writing, as before required, to them, on a Day and at a Place therein to be named, and so from time to time as often as shall be necessary; and in case any Officer before described shall neglect or make Default in making any such Return to the Precept which shall be fixed by any Two or more Justices acting for the Division wherein such Default shall be made, then and in every such case such and every such Officer before described, is neglecting and making Default as aforesaid, without sufficient Excuse to be allowed by the said Justices acting for such Division, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, as shall or may be ordered and adjudged by such last mentioned Justices, to be levied on the Goods and Chattle of the Officers so neglecting or making Default.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Overseer or Overseers, Assessor or Assessors, or Collector or Collectors, shall neglect or make Default in making such Return or Returns as aforesaid, or if it shall happen that notwithstanding the issuing of any such Precept or Precepts as aforesaid, for or on account of such Neglect or Default, a Return for any Parish, Township or Place, whether Parochial or otherwise, shall not be made within the time limited for the making thereof, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the said Justices, and they are hereby required, either at the said General or Quarter Sessions, or at any Adjournment or Adjournments thereof, or at some subsequent General or Quarter Sessions to be held for the same County, or at some Adjournment or Adjournments thereof, or at some Petty Sessions, or Adjournment or Adjournments thereof respectively, as the case may be, to ascertain the annual Value of the Property chargeable to the County Rate, within or for such and every the Parish, Township and Place, whether Parochial or otherwise, of which the Constable or Constables, Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Overseer or Overseers, Assessor or Assessors, Collector or Collectors, shall have so neglected or made Default in making such Return as aforesaid, by issuing such Precepts, or by such other means as may appear to the said Justices the most convenient and proper towards the obtaining a just and fair Estimate of such annual Value; and the said Justices of the Peace of the County in General or Quarter Sessions, or any Adjournment or Adjournments thereof, assembled, sitting on their own Discretion, or on the Report of any Two or more Justices acting as and for any Division of such County, as the case may be, shall order such Allowances or Compensation to be made to the Persons employed in ascertaining the said annual Value and in making such Returns as aforesaid, as to the said Justices so assembled shall appear reasonable; and all such Allowances and Compensation, and other Expenses as shall be thereby incurred, shall be by the said Justices so assembled charged upon the Parish, Township or Place, whether Parochial or otherwise, of which the Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, shall have so neglected or made Default as aforesaid, in addition to the Properties of the said County Rate to be paid by such Parish, Township or Place, whether Parochial or otherwise; and such Allowances, Compensation and Expenses, shall and may be raised, levied and collected by such and the like ways and means as the said County Rate can or may be raised, levied and collected, and shall be paid therewith, due Distinction being made in the case of every such additional Assessment between the Sum or Sums charged for and on account of any such Expenses and the Sum or Sums assessed as and for the County Rate.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That in all Cases and Places as aforesaid, where there are no Churchwarden or Overseers of the Poor, or where no Rate is made and collected for the Relief of the Poor, or where the Justices of the Peace of any County or of any Division thereof, assembled as aforesaid, for the Purpose of receiving such Returns as aforesaid of the Annual Value of the Property chargeable to the County Rate, shall be of Opinion that the Returns made to them do not afford a full, fair and just Account of the Annual Value of the Property taxable, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices of the Peace so assembled, to summon before them any one or more substantial Inhabitants of such Place respectively, or any other Persons or Persons whom they the said Justices may think proper to give Evidence as to the true Annual Value of such taxable Property; and then and there to examine such Inhabitants or Inhabitants and other Persons or Persons respectively on Oath (which Oath any One or more of the said Justices is and are hereby authorized to administer) as to the Annual Value of such Property.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in such Place or Places where there is no Poor's Rate, or Overseer of the Poor or Churchwarden, or other Officer, necessary for the Execution of the Provisions of this Act, residing within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace of the County requiring such Returns, and in which there is any Property liable to the Poor's Rate, but not rated or assessed therein, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices of the Peace of the County, assembled as aforesaid, or for the Justices of the Peace resident in and sitting for any Division of the County in which such Place or Places are situate, at any

IX. And, for the better enabling as well the said Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, as the Justices of the several Divisions sitting under the Order or Orders of the Justices assembled as aforesaid, respectively, to ascertain the true Annual Value of all Property liable to be rated, it is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices, or any Two or more of them, from time to time, whenever the same may be in the Judgment of such Justices necessary for the more correct Execution of this Act, to cause any of the Books of Assessment of any Rate or Taxes, Parliamentary or Parochial, which have lately been, are now, or shall hereafter be laid on any Part of the Property liable to be assessed towards the Purposes for which a County Rate is applicable, and the Valuations by which such Assessments are or were made, mentioned and described, within any Parish or Place within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of the said Justices, in the Hands of any Constable, Churchwarden, Overseer, Assessor or Collector, to be brought before them or him, and to take Copies or Extracts of and from such Books or any Parts thereof, or to order and direct any Person to take such Copies or Extracts from such Books, in the Hands of them or any of them, without having the same brought before the said Justices, or to call before them any such Constable, Churchwarden, Overseer, Assessor or Collector, to give Evidence respecting the same, as they or he or any of them shall think fit, such Compensation being made to the Person or Persons employed for any of the Purposes aforesaid, as the said Justices or any Two or more of them shall think reasonable; and if any Person or Persons in whose Custody or Power any of the said Books may be, shall neglect or refuse to attend the said Justices with such Book or Books, or to permit any such Copies or Extracts to be taken as aforesaid, or to give such Information, or Evidence as such as may be required by such Justices (which such Justices or any One or more of them are and is hereby authorized to administer) then and in every such case, every Person who shall so refuse or neglect, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds; and moreover it shall be lawful for such Justices, in the like cases, from time to time to cause Copies of the Total Amount assessed in each Parish, Township or Place, in respect of any Aids or Taxes payable to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and the Total Amount of the Valuations of the Property on which such Assessments were made in any Year then elapsed, to be made out by the Clerk to the Commissioners of each District within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of such Justices, such Compensation being made to the respective Clerks as the said Justices, or any Two of them, shall think reasonable; and if any such Clerk shall neglect or refuse to make out such Copies within a reasonable time after his Receipt of the Order of such Justices, every such Clerk shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

X. And, for the better enabling the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, Chief Constables, and other Persons, to make accurate Returns as heretofore required, in cases where Debts are entered, he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for them, or any of them, or for such other Person or Persons as they may select for that Purpose, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any Two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to enter upon, view and examine all and any Lands or other Property chargeable to the County Rate, in order to ascertain the annual Value at which the same ought to be charged: Provided always, that no such Entry shall in any case be made, unless Fourteen Days' previous Notice of the Intention of making such Entry shall have been given under the Hands and Seals of the Justices authorizing the same, to the Churchwardens or Overseers, or to the Person or Persons appointed to sit, in Default of such Churchwardens or Overseers of the Parish, Township or Place, whether Parochial or otherwise, and to the Person or Persons whose Lands are to be entered upon for the Purpose of making such Valuations.

XI. And he is further enacted, That whenever the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled shall have ordered any County Rate to be made, which they are hereby authorized to order from time to time whenever the same shall be necessary, and the Justices in Petty Sessions shall by any of the aforesaid ways and means have ascertained to their own Satisfaction the fair and just annual Value of any or of all the rateable Property within their respective Divisions, and they are hereby required from time to time to certify under their Hands the true Amount thereof, to the then next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the same County, in the latest that at such General or Quarter Sessions, or at some Adjournment or Adjournments thereof, or at some subsequent General or Quarter Sessions, or Adjournment or Adjournments thereof, the Justices there assembled meet from time to time, and as often as they shall deem it necessary, make a fair and equal Rate on all such Rateable Property, or correct any Inequalities which upon Appeal shall be shown to their Satisfaction; to exist in any Rate now existing or hereafter to be made.

Justices authorized to sit for Parliamentary and Parochial Assessments, &c.

Constables, within their respective Counties, ordering and requiring them to issue their Warrants to the respective Overseers of the Poor within their respective Divisions, to levy, collect, and pay to the said High Constables, within a time to be named and limited in the Warrant to be issued upon the Solicitors as aforesaid, all such Rate or Rates, Assessments or Assessments, which such High Constables shall and he is hereby directed and required to pay, at such time as shall be specified in such Warrant, to the Treasurer of the County for the time being, to be applied and disposed of in such manner and for such Purposes as the County Stock or Rate is now applicable or may hereafter be made applicable by Law; and to call any Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, or other Person appointed to act as such under the Provisions of this Act, in any of the several Parishes, Townships or Places, whether Parochial or otherwise, within any County liable to pay the same, shall neglect, make default or refuse to pay the same within the time to be specified and limited for that Purpose as aforesaid, to the High Constable of the Division within which such Overseer or Overseers, or other Person or Persons to make and requiring to pay, shall reside or be appointed to act, it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace of the said County, upon Complaint thereof made by any such High Constable, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any such Justice, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Offenders' Goods, and the Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, Township or Place, whether Parochial or otherwise, or other Person or Persons appointed to act as such Overseer or Overseers, shall and may and is and are hereby empowered to levy and make by an equal Rate or Assessment upon all and every the several Estates and Property situate to the Relief of the Poor, within their respective Parishes, Townships or Places, whether Parochial or otherwise, such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be required and necessary, in order to raise the several Sums allotted upon such Parishes, Townships or Places respectively, or to reimburse such Overseer or Overseers, or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, such Sum or Sums of Money as they shall respectively have paid on account of the same; such Rate or Assessments to be paid by the Occupier or Occupiers for the time being of such Estates and situate Property as aforesaid.

XIII. And Whereas it would be inconvenient and oppressive to many Townships or Places, that the Sum of Money which may be allotted as there, as or for a County Rate under this Act, should be paid out of any Rate made for the Relief of the Poor, where such Poor Rate does not apply separately and distinctly to the Parish, Township or Place: Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, at their General or Quarter Sessions, or at any Adjournment thereof, if they shall think convenient, to order the Sums of Money directed to be allotted as or for the County Rate on any such Parish, Township or Place, whether Parochial or otherwise, to be paid and levied on the Churchwardens, Overseers or Petty Constables, or for any such Parish, Township or Place, in such manner as the same is herein directed to be paid and levied in cases where a Rate is made for the Relief of the Poor; any thing herein contained, or any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIV. Provided always, and to be enacted, That if the Churchwardens or Churchwardens, Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, or other Inhabitant or Inhabitants of any Parish, Township or Place, whether Parochial or otherwise, where there is no Churchwarden or Overseer, or Person appointed to act as such, shall at any time have reason to think that such Parish, Township or Place, is aggrieved by any Rate now existing or hereafter to be made, either in pursuance of this Act or of any Act or Acts now in force, whether it be on account of the Proportions allotted upon the respective Parishes, Townships or Places being unequal, or on account of some one or more of them being without sufficient Cause assessed altogether from the Rate, or on account of such Parish, Township or Place being rated at a higher Proportion of the Pound Sterling according to the full annual Value of the rateable Property therein, or on account of some other Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Place or Places being rated at a lower Proportion of the Pound Sterling according to the full annual Value of the rateable Property therein, then has been found and declared by the Justices of the Peace of the said County in Sessions assembled, as the Basis of the Rate of the said County, or on account of any other just Cause of Complaint whatsoever; it shall be lawful for such Churchwardens or Churchwardens, Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, or other Inhabitant or Inhabitants where there is no Churchwarden or Overseer, or Person appointed to act as such, to appeal to the Justices of the Peace for the County, at any General or Quarter Sessions, against such Part of the Rate only as may affect the Parish or Parishes, Township or Townships, Place or Places, which are unequally rated, or which shall appear to be over-rated or under-rated, or assessed altogether from the Rate; and the said Justices are hereby empowered to hear and finally determine the same, and either to confirm such Parts of the Rate as have been assessed against, or to correct such inequalities, Disproportions or Onions, as shall be proved to each thereof, in such manner as to them the said Justices shall appear fair, just and equitable; any thing in this Act, or any former Act or Acts, or any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless, that upon such Appeal, as such Rate shall be qualified or discharged in regard to any other Parish, Township or Place, which in cases where the Justices of the Peace of any County, in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, or the mayor Part of them, shall deem it necessary to proceed to the making of a new Rate, and shall proceed thereon according to the Provisions of this Act.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Appeals, Adjourns, Suits or Proceedings at Law, respecting any thing done in pursuance of this Act, or any other Act or Acts relating to the County Rate, the Expenses of all such Appeals, Adjourns, Suits or Proceedings at Law, shall be borne and paid by such respective Parishes, Townships, Places and Persons, or each of them, and in such Proportions, as the said Justices shall upon any Appeal, in their General or Quarter Sessions, award and order; or as such Courts, wherein such Appeals, Suits or Proceedings shall be instituted, shall adjudge and order; and shall not be charged to or be paid out of the County Rate.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of any County, in General or Quarter Sessions, or any Adjournment thereof, from time to time assembled, to order such Allowances and Compensation to be made to the Overseers, Churchwardens, Constables, Aldermen, Collectors, Clerks or other Persons employed in the Execution of this Act, which have not hitherto been provided for, from, by and out of the Moneys assessed, levied and collected by any County Rate made under this or any former Act or Acts, as to the said Justices shall appear reasonable and proper.

XVII. And Whereas the Allowance which the Justices of the Peace are authorized to make to the Treasurer or Treasurers for his or their Care and Pains in the Execution of his or their Office, has been limited by the before recited Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, to a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds a Year: And Whereas such Sum has been in force, and may be so fixed in many cases inadequate to remunerate him or them for such Care and Pains: Be it hereby further enacted, That so much of the said Act as Enjoins the said Allowance to Twenty-Pounds a Year, do hereby repealed, and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices of the Peace, or their respective General or Quarter Sessions, or the greater Part of them then and there assembled, to allow to the Treasurer or Treasurers of their Counties, and to every of them residing on the same, such reasonable Sum or Sums of Money for such Purpose as aforesaid, as they in their Discretion shall think fit, of which they are hereby empowered to direct the Payment out of the Moneys arising by the Rates of their respective Counties: Provided always, that no such Augmentation of Allowance shall be made at any such General or Quarter Sessions, unless Application for such Augmentation shall have been made by the said Treasurer or Treasurers, or by the Justices of the Peace, at some previous General or Quarter Sessions assembled, and unless Notice of the Intention of taking the said Augmentation into Consideration shall have been advertised for Three successive Weeks in some Newspaper usually circulating in such County, in the Month immediately preceding the time fixed for considering the same.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said several Treasurers of Counties, or of Divisions of Counties, shall and they are hereby required, once in every Year, to publish in some one of the Newspapers usually circulating in the County or Division of the County in which they respectively sit, a true and accurate Abstract of the Account of their Receipts and Expenditures, under their several Heads, for the Year immediately preceding the Publication of such Abstract, signed by the Justices of the Peace who shall have audited the same, under a Penalty of Fifty Pounds, for every Offence of such Publication.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace of the said several Counties are hereby authorized and empowered to demand and take, whenever they shall think fit, good and sufficient Security, to be approved of by the said Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, from the High Constables employed in the collecting and levying the Rates; and that if any such High Constable, upon being so called upon by the said Justices, shall neglect or refuse to give such Security as shall be approved by them, it shall then be lawful for the said Justices of the Peace in Quarter Sessions assembled, to order and direct the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, or other Persons appointed as assessors, collect and levy the Rates of any Parish, Township, or Place to pay the Quota which shall be assessed thereupon towards the County Rate, to the Treasurer of the County, Division or Place in which such Parish, Township or Place, shall be situate; and the Receipt of such Treasurer shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same.

XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That all and every the Clauses, Powers, Directions, Provisions and Authorities contained in the said Act made in the Twelfth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the more easy assessing, collecting and levying County Rates; and also so much of another Act made in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act to continue several Acts therein mentioned, for passing such Persons as shall wilfully and maliciously pull down or destroy Turnpikes for repairing Highways; as Locks or other Works erected by Authority of Parliament for making Rivers navigable; for preventing Excesses of the Occupiers of Locks and Weirs upon the River of Thames westward, and for abating the Rates of Water Carriage upon the said River; as for preventing Irregular and malicious Arrests; and for better securing the lawful Trade of His Majesty's Subjects to and from the East Indies, and for the more effectual preventing all His Majesty's Subjects trading abroad under Foreign Commissions; and for limiting the Time for suing writs of Certiorari upon Proceedings before Justices of the Peace, and for regulating the Time and Manner of applying for the same; for the better and more speedy Execution of Process within particular Parishes and Liberties; and for extending the Powers and Authorities of Justices of the Peace of Counties, touching County Rates, as the Justices of the Peace of such Liberties and Parishes as have Commissions of the Peace within themselves, as relate to County Rates (save and except such Parts thereof respectively as are hereby varied, altered or repealed) shall be good, valid and effectual, for the Purposes of assessing, levying, collecting and enforcing the Payment of the Rate or Rates hereafter to be made in pursuance of this Act, and for carrying this Act into Execution.

XXI. And Whereas several Acts have passed in the Reign of His present Majesty, and are now in force, empowering the Justices of the Peace of certain Counties to make fair and equal County Rates within their respective Counties: Be it hereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices respectively, and they are hereby empowered, at any time and at all times after the passing of this Act, to proceed in the assessing, levying and collecting and enforcing the Payment of the County Rate, and in all Matters relating to the equalizing the same, either under the Authority and according to the Provisions and Enactments of this Act, or under the Authority and according to the Provisions and Enactments of the particular Acts affecting their respective Counties, as to them shall seem fit and proper, in all cases in which the Provisions and Enactments of this Act are not inconsistent with the Provisions and Enactments of such particular Acts.

XXII. And

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the several Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by this Act shall, if not immediately paid, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offenders' Goods and Chattels, by virtue of any Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any One Justice of the Peace for the County, not only in the County in which the Offence shall have been committed, but in any other County, City, Town, Borough, Franchise or Place (the Warrant or Warrants for levying the same being in each last mentioned case first indented by some Justice of the Peace for the County, or Mayor, or other Head Officer of the City, Town, Borough or Franchise, where any Goods of the respective Defaulters shall be found) entering the Overplus (if any) after the Charges of such Distress and Sale shall be deducted; and in case sufficient Distress shall not be found, then it shall be lawful for such Justice to commit the Offender to the Common Goal of the said County, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for any term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless the Forfeitures and Charges be sooner paid; and the said Forfeitures, when recovered, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the County, or of any Division thereof, in which they shall have been levied, to be applied in aid of the Rates of the said County or Division thereof; and no Person shall be deemed incompetent to be a Witness for the Execution of the Purposes of this Act, or in any Appeal or other Proceeding instituted by virtue thereof, by reason of his paying or being liable to pay towards the Poor Rates or County Rates within the said County.

XXIII. II. III. And whereas the Militia of some of the Counties, Ridings and Places in Great Britain, have been kept embodied after the Militia of other Counties have been disembodied; and it is therefore reasonable and expedient that the Expence incurred, in Allowances to the Wives and Families of such Militia, should be reimbursed; Be it therefore enacted, That all Sums of Money which shall have been paid, by any County, Riding, Stewartry, Division, City, Town or Place, in Great Britain, or by any Parish, Township or Place therein, for or in respect of any Allowance to the Wives or Families of any Non-Commissioned Officers, Drummers or Private Men, of the Militia of England or Scotland respectively, after the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, under or in pursuance of any of the Provisions of the Acts in force in relation to such Allowances in England and Scotland respectively, shall, upon the Certificate of Two or more of the Justices of the Peace in England, or of any Two or more of the Justices of the Peace in Scotland, be repaid, by the respective Receivers General in England, and by the Collectors of the Cuts in Scotland, to the Treasurers or Overseers of the Poor or Parish Officers respectively, or other Persons, of the Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Towns or Places, for or in respect of which such Allowances shall have been advanced, out of any Public Monies in their Hands; and all such Payments shall be allowed in other Accounts of such Receivers General respectively.

Allowance to Wives and Families of Militia retained, embodied after 14th June 1814, repaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in every case in which a sufficient Number of Officers cannot be found within the Town where any Sergeant Major, Sergeant, Corporal, Drum Major or Drummer of the Militia were disembodied, it to be tried by any Court Martial, or within Two Miles thereof, it shall be lawful for the Colonel, or the Commandant or Senior Field Officer, as the case may be, to order any such Number of other Officers of the Militia of the County, Riding or Place, to which the Regiment shall belong, residing beyond such Two Miles, as may be necessary to complete the Court Martial, to attend and assist as Members of the Court, who shall at the time required thereupon attend and assist accordingly; and all such Officers shall be entitled to Pay during such Attendance, and to One Shilling and Six pence for every Mile for going to such Court Martial at the Commencement thereof and returning after the Conclusion of the Proceedings of the Court.

VII. And Whereas certain Persons serving in the Militia of Great Britain, as Non Commissioned Officers and Drummers, have lately been and are now employed in raising Men for the Militia, by Beat of Drum, under an Act passed in the Fifty first Year of His Majesty's Reign; and it is reasonable that their Families should receive the same Relief as if the corps to which they belonged were embodied: Be it therefore enacted, That where any such Non Commissioned Officer or Drummer, who shall be so employed on the Recruiting Service, shall have left a Family at the Head Quarters of the Regiment unable to support themselves, the Overseer or Overseers of the Parish, Tything or Township, where the Family of such Person shall dwell, shall, by Order of some one Justice of the Peace, pay to the Family of every such Non Commissioned Officer or Drummer, out of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor of such Parish, Tything or Township, such and the like Weekly Allowance as would have been payable to such Family under any Act now in force, if such Non Commissioned Officer or Drummer had been embodied and called out into actual Service; such Allowance to commence and be calculated from the fourteenth Day of April next before the passing of this Act, and to be continued during the time such Non Commissioned Officer and Drummer shall be absent from Head Quarters upon such Recruiting Service; and if any Non Commissioned Officer or Drummer belonging to the Militia of Great Britain, who shall hereafter be employed in the Recruiting Service, shall leave a Family at the Head Quarters of the Regiment unable to support themselves, although the Militia to which such Non Commissioned Officer or Drummer shall belong shall not be embodied, such and the like Allowance shall be payable to the Family of such Non Commissioned Officer or Drummer, during the time he shall be absent from Head Quarters upon such Recruiting Service, as would have been payable, under any Law now in force, to such Family, if such Non Commissioned Officer or Drummer had been at the time embodied and called into actual Service.

An Act to continue the Encouragement of Persons making Discoveries for finding the Longitude at Sea, or other useful Discoveries and Improvements in Navigation, and for making Experiments relating thereto; and for discharging certain Debts incurred by the Commissioners of the Longitude, in carrying the Acts relating thereto into Execution. [7th June 1815.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled 46 G. 3. c. 71

XVII. And be it further enacted, That every Copy of every Affidavit which shall be read in any Court whatever in Ireland, shall be engrossed or written in such manner as that the Quantity of Writing contained in any One Sheet or Piece of Paper shall not be deemed more than One Sheet, according to the manner in which the Officers of the Courts in which such Affidavit shall be respectively filed charge by the Sheet for such Affidavit; and if any Officer of any Court shall charge or demand for the Quantity of Writing contained in any One Sheet or Piece of Paper, on which any Copy of such Affidavit shall be written, more than the Fees to which he would be entitled for One Sheet, according to the Course of the Court in which such Affidavit shall be filed, he shall, for every such Charge so made or demanded, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds, with Treble Costs of Suits, to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That where more than One Side or Page of any Sheet of Paper shall be stamped or marked with the Duties which shall then be by Law charged on the Paper on which such Copy of an Affidavit shall be written, each Side or Page so marked or stamped shall be deemed a separate Sheet or Piece of Paper within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and of every Act in force from time to time, for the Impole, Collection or Management of any Stamp Duty, unless the contrary shall be expressly declared.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every Record, or Transcript of a Record, to be brought in as the perfect Court of Exchequer Chamber in Ireland, shall, when copied for the Judges or others, be copied in like manner as in the former Court of Exchequer Chamber in Ireland.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all Records, Writs, Pleadings and other Proceedings in the Courts of Law and Equity, and Ecclesiastical Courts, Courts of Admiralty, and all other Courts in Ireland, and all Office Copies thereof respectively, which shall from time to time be charged with any Stamp Duty, shall be engrossed or written in such manner as they usually have been accustomed to be written, save as is or may be otherwise provided by Law.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every attested Copy of any Interrogatory or Interrogatories, or Deposition or Depositions, in the Court of Chancery, or in the Equity Side of the Court of Exchequer, shall be signed by the Examiners of the said Courts respectively, and every such Examiner shall file and appoint in Writing, at the Foot of every such attested Copy, whether the same is to be read by or on the Part of any Complainant or Plaintiff, or by or on the Part of any Defendant, in the Suit in which such Interrogatories or Depositions shall have been taken; and it shall not be lawful for any such Complainant or Plaintiff to read or give in Evidence any Copy of such Interrogatories or Depositions which shall be so appointed to be read on behalf of any Defendant in such Suit; nor for any Defendant to read or give in Evidence any such Copy which shall be so appointed to be read on behalf of the Complainant, unless the same respectively shall be doubly stamped; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Officer of any Court shall make any Judgment not introductory, whether for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or for the Defendant or Defendants, or any of them, the Amount of the Sum, if any, to be recovered thereby, whether in respect of Debt, Damages or Costs, shall be stated in the said Entry thereof, so far as the same shall be then ascertained, in order that the Stamp Duty payable in respect thereof may be then calculated and paid, and be afterwards accounted for and paid over by such Officer as aforesaid; and if on any such Judgment, whether for Plaintiff or Defendant, Costs shall be recoverable, and the Amount of such Costs shall not be then ascertained, then a Blank shall be left for the Amount of such Costs, whether Single, Double or Treble; and as soon as the said Costs shall be ascertained and before any Record shall be made up, or Execution issued on such Judgment, such Blank shall be filled up with the Amount of such Costs, and the Person requiring such Entry, if Costs only shall be recovered in such Judgment, shall pay the Stamp Duty in respect of such Amount; and if Debt and Damages, or Debt or Damages also be made recoverable therein, then such Person shall pay the Difference between the Stamp Duty, if any, theretofore paid as aforesaid, in respect of such Debt and Damages, or Debt or Damages, and the Duty payable in respect of the whole Amount adjudged; and if by any reason such Stamp Duty shall not have been theretofore paid, then the Person requiring such Entry shall pay to such Officer the whole Stamp Duty payable in respect of the entire Sum adjudged, and such Officer shall in any of the said cases fill up the said Duplicate Book, and account for and pay over the Sum so received by him in manner aforesaid; and if any such Judgment shall have been so marked or entered on or previous to the last Day of the Term immediately preceding the filing up of such Blank, then such Officer when he shall be so required to fill up such Blank, and before he shall fill up the same, shall enter a Memorandum thereof in his Book, in the same Place as if such Memorandum were a Judgment entered on that Day, and such Memorandum shall state the Amount of such Costs, and shall refer to the Judgment so previously marked and then about to be filled up, so that the same may immediately be found by such References, and a Reference to such Memorandum shall also be made in the Margin of such Judgment; and when such Officer shall afterwards certify, in the Duplicate of such Book, the Amount of the Stamp Duties for the Term and Vacation next preceding as aforesaid, he shall include therein the Duty to be payable on the filing up of such Blank as aforesaid; and if any Officer shall neglect or enter any such Judgment without stating therein the Amount of the Sum recoverable thereby, so far as the same shall be then ascertained, or shall omit or suffer to be filed any Execution on any such Judgment, or shall suffer any Record thereof to be made up before full Entry shall have been made, of the Sum to be recovered by such Judgment as aforesaid, or shall omit to make such Memorandum as aforesaid, every such Officer so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Forty Pounds.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That all Process which shall be entered or obtained to enforce the Appearance or Appearances of any Defendant or Defendants in any Court of Law or Equity in Ireland, or to enforce the Answer or Answers of any Defendant or Defendants in any Court of Equity in Ireland, shall be engrossed and made out upon Vellum, Parchment or Paper stamped with the Duty which shall be then payable upon such Process; and in case the Officer or Officers who shall enter or cause such Process to be entered as aforesaid, shall neglect to have such Process made out as aforesaid, he and they shall, for every such Neglect, forfeit to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Sum of Ten Pounds, which Sum shall be enforced in a summary way upon Motion by Order of the Court in which such Process shall be entered, together with the Costs of so recovering the same.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That any Writ of Attachment, Alias Process, Proclamation, Commission of Rebellion, Subpoena at Arms, or Sequestration, which shall issue in or from the Court of Chancery in Ireland, shall be entered in the Office of the Registrar of the said Court, and that such Registrar and also the proper Officer for entering such Writs in the Equity Side of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, shall receive a Fee of Six pence and no more, for every such Writ which shall be so entered by him, and shall certify such Entry on the Back of such Writ, and that every such Writ shall be so entered and filed before the Return Day thereof, and not afterwards; and that none of the said Writs, after the said Writ of Attachment, shall be so entered or filed, unless all the preceding Writs in the Order aforesaid shall previously have been actually and duly entered and filed as aforesaid; and that no Order, return or Proceeding shall be made or taken in or by either of the said Courts grounded on any such Writ or Process, nor shall such Court take any Notice of the Existence of any such Writ, until such Writ and the Certificate of the Entry thereof, shall have been produced and read to such Court: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Officers respectively, to file any such Writ or Writs at any time after the Return or Returns thereof respectively, so as the same shall be done under an Order specially made for that Purpose by the Court either on Consent of Parties or on the particular circumstances of the case, and that every such Order shall be liable to a Duty equal to the full Amount of the Stamp Duties payable on each and every Writ XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Officer of any Court of Law or Equity or of any Ecclesiastical or Admiralty Court in Ireland, shall certify, subscribe, engross or vouch any attested Copy, or any other Matter whatsoever in any writ relating to the Business of such Court in respect of which any Stamp Duty shall be payable, and whomsoever any such Clerk in Chancery, or any Attorney, Solicitor, Proctor, Agent, Procurator, Notary Public or Scrivener, shall certify any Pleading, Order or Proceeding whatsoever, in respect whereof any Stamp Duties shall be payable, to be filed in any such Court, or shall by himself, his Clerks, Agents or Servants prepare or cause to be prepared or written or engrossed, any Deed, Instrument or Writing in respect whereof any Stamp Duty shall be payable; and in case it shall happen that the Vellum, Parchment or Paper upon which such attested Copy or other Matter, Pleading, Order or Proceeding, Deed, Instrument or Writing shall be written or engrossed, shall be stamped or marked with a file, forged or counterfeited Stamp or Mark, every such Officer, Clerk, Attorney, Solicitor, Agent, Procurator, Proctor, Notary Public or Scrivener respectively, shall, for every such file, forged or counterfeited Stamp or Mark, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds Sterling Currency, unless he shall prove that the Vellum, Parchment or Paper so stamped or marked was bought with the Stamps or Marks thence at the Stamp Office in Dublin, or of some Distributor or Sub-Distributor of Stamps, or of some Person licensed to sell Stamps.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Deed or other Instrument which shall be subject to any Stamp Duty whatsoever shall be delivered for Registry to the Registrar or Deputy Registrar for registering Deeds in Ireland, or shall be delivered for Enrollment to any Officer of any of His Majesty's Superior Courts in Dublin, or to any Clerk of the Peace or other Person authorized to enroll Deeds in Ireland, such Registrar, Deputy Registrar, Officer, Clerk of the Peace or other Person shall, before the same shall be so registered or enrolled respectively, examine carefully such Deed and the Stamp thence, for which Examination the Person actually making the same, whether Principal or Deputy, shall receive for his own proper Use from the Person so delivering such Deed or Instrument, a Sum or Fee of Six pence and no more, over and above all other lawful Fees, and if such Deed shall not be stamped with a proper and legal Stamp, to denote the Payment of the Duty which shall appear to be payable thereon, such Registrar or such Person shall not cause such Deed to be registered or enrolled respectively, until the same shall be duly stamped; and if any such Registrar, Deputy Registrar, Officer, Clerk of the Peace or other Person, shall offend herein, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds Sterling.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That no Memorial shall be received for Registry by any such Registrar, or Deputy Registrar, in Ireland, unless he shall receive at the time time the Deed or other Instrument required to be registered thereby; and if any such Registrar or Deputy Registrar shall receive such Memorial without such Deed or other Instrument, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no attested Copy of any Final Judgment which shall have been entered in Ireland before the Commencement of this Act, and which shall have required a Stamp, shall be given or received in Evidence, unless the Officer attesting the same shall certify, not only that the same is a true Copy of such Judgment, but that such Judgment has been duly stamped as aforesaid respectively; and if any Officer shall certify the same falsely, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Forty Pounds.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That, if any Person or Persons shall be arrested by virtue of any Writ or Process of any of His Majesty's Superior Courts of Record in Dublin, at the Suit of any common Person, and the Sheriff or other Officer shall take Bail from such Person against whom such Writ or Process shall issue, the Sheriff or other Officer, at the Request and Call of the Plaintiff in such Action or Suit, or of his lawful Attorney, shall duly assign to the Plaintiff in such Action or Suit, the Bail Bond or other Security taken from such Bail by Endorsement according to Law; and also when and so often as it shall become necessary for any Sheriff or other Officer in Ireland, having Authority to grant Replevin, to assign any Bail Bond of any Plaintiff in Replevin to the Avowant or Defendant in such Action, then and in every of the said cases such Assignments may be made without any Stamp: Provided nevertheless, that no Assignments shall be brought under any Assignment until the same shall have been first duly stamped with such Stamp as shall be then by Law required for such Assignments, and the said several Assignments shall, on Application at the Stamp Office in Dublin, at any time before any Assignments be brought thereupon, be duly stamped, in each manner as shall be then required by Law, without Payment of any Penalty or other Sum, save only the Duty which shall be then payable thereon.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, in all cases of the Sale of any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Annuities or other Property, Real or Personal, or of any Right, Title, Interest or Claim, in, to, out of or upon any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Annuities, or other Property where a Duty is or shall be from time to time imposed on the Conveyance thereof, in Proportion to the Amount of the Purchase or Consideration Money therein or thereupon expressed, the full Purchase or Consideration Money, which shall be directly or indirectly paid or incurred, or agreed to be paid for the same, shall be truly expressed and set forth in Writing at length in or upon the Principal or only Deed or Instrument, whereby the Land or other Thing sold shall be granted, assigned, transferred, released, reassigned or otherwise conveyed to XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any or either of the Parties hereby made liable to the Payment of such Penalty and Quintuple Duty as aforesaid, shall give Information to the Commissioners of Stamps whereby such Penalty or Quintuple Duty, or any Part thereof, shall be recovered from any other Party or Parties liable thereto, the Party or Parties giving the Information shall not only be indemnified and discharged of and from such tax, but also be rewarded by the Commissioners of Stamps out of the Penalty or Quintuple Duty so recovered, as such Estate as the said Commissioners shall think proper, but not exceeding One Half of what shall be so recovered; and where any other Person shall give Information whereby such Penalty or Quintuple Duty shall be recovered, he or she shall be rewarded in the like manner.

XL. And be it further enacted, That where the full Purchase or Consideration Money shall not be truly expressed or set forth in the manner hereby directed, it shall be lawful for the Purchaser or Purchasers, or any of them, or his, her or their Executors or Administrators, to recover back from the Seller or Sellers, his, her or their Executors or Administrators, so much and such Part of such Purchase or Consideration Money as shall not be expressed and set forth as aforesaid, or the whole thereof, if so Part of the same shall be so expressed and set forth, either in an Affidavit for Money had and received for the Use of the Party or Parties suing for the same, or by Affirmation of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information in any of His Majesty's Superior Courts of Record in Dublin, wherein no Oaths, Protestation, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparance shall be allowed, together with Double the Costs of Suit; but such Purchase or Conveyance shall not therefore be affected or impeached for any Want or Inadequacy of Consideration, but the same shall be of the same Force, Validity and Effect, as if the Sum so recovered had been expressed in the Deed or other Conveyance as the Consideration or Part of the Consideration thereof, and had been duly paid and received accordingly.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if any Attorney, Solicitor or other Person, who shall be employed in or about the preparing of any such Deed, Bond or other Instrument in or upon which the full Purchase or Consideration Money is hereby required to be truly expressed and set forth as aforesaid, or who shall be employed for any of the Parties therein, in any wife about or relating to the Transaction therein mentioned, shall knowingly and wilfully insert or set forth, or cause to be inserted or set forth, in or upon any such Deed, Bond or other Instrument, any other than the full and true Purchase or Consideration Money directly or indirectly paid or secured, or agreed to be paid for the same, or shall in any wife aid or assist in the doing thereof respectively, every such Attorney, Solicitor or other Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and every Attorney and Solicitor so offending, and bring himself lawfully convicted, shall also be from thenceforth disabled to practise as an Attorney or Solicitor; and any other Person being enabled, entrusted or suborned to prepare any such Deed or other Instrument in virtue of any Public Office or Employment, and being guilty of such Offence, in the Execution of his Office or Employment, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall also forfeit and lose his Office or Employment, and be from thenceforth incapable of holding the same.

XLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Party, Attorney, Solicitor or other Person whatsoever, shall be liable to any Penalty, Disability or Forfeiture whatsoever, by reason of the full Purchase or Consideration Money not being truly expressed and set forth in or upon any such Deed, Bond or other Instrument as aforesaid, unless the Duty or Duties actually paid for the same, shall be less than would have been payable for the same, in case the full Purchase or Consideration Money had been truly expressed and set forth according to the Direction of this Act.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That where there shall be Duplicates or Triplicates, or more than One Part made of any Instrument which shall be then by Law charged with any ad valorem Duty, one of such Duplicates, Triplicates or Parts shall be charged with the full ad valorem Duty, and the other or others of them shall be exempted therefrom, but shall nevertheless be charged with the ordinary Duty on Deeds and Conveyances in general, and the said Commissioners of Stamps upon all the Parts of the said Instruments being produced to them, duly stamped as hereby required, shall cause the Duplicates, Triplicates, or all other Parts, except that on which the ad valorem Duty shall be stamped, to be also stamped with some particular Stamp, for denoting or testifying the Payment of the said ad valorem Duty, and thereupon, but not before or otherwise, XLIV. And be it further enacted, That where there shall be several Deeds or Instruments for effecting the Conveyance of any Property upon the Sale thereof, and any Doubt shall arise which is the Principal Deed or Instrument chargeable with the ad valorem Duty, in respect of such Sale, it shall be lawful for the Parties concerned to determine for themselves which shall be the Principal Deed or Instrument, and upon all the said Deeds or Instruments being produced, and appearing to be duly stamped, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps to make such which shall not be stamped with the ad valorem Duty to be also stamped with some particular Stamp for denoting or testifying the Payment thereof, and thereupon, but not otherwise, such Deeds which shall not be stamped with the ad valorem Duty shall and may be received as Evidence in any Court of Justice.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who hath written, printed, engraved or executed, or who shall write, print, engrave or execute any Record, Deed, Instrument, Copy, Manuscript or Thing, in respect whereof any Stamp Duty is or shall be payable, upon any Vellum, Parchment or Paper, which hath not been or shall not be duly stamped to discharge the Payment of such Duty, and also every Person who in any other manner whatsoever is or shall be liable to the Payment of any Stamp Duty, and who by any Contumacious, Neglect or Omission, shall have omitted or neglected to pay any Stamp Duty, which, in respect of any Act, Matter or Thing heretofore done or caused to be done by him, or hereafter to be done or caused to be done by him, shall have been by Law payable to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be accountable to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for such Duty, and the Amount thereof shall be a Debt from such Person to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and that in every such case it shall and may be lawful for the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, upon Application to be made for that Purpose on behalf of the said Commissioners of Stamps, upon such Affidavit or Affidavits as to the said Court may appear to be sufficient, to grant a Rule requiring such Person or Persons to show Cause why he, she or they should not deliver to the said Commissioners of Stamps an Account, upon Oath, of all such Duties so due, and why the same should not be forthwith paid according to Law, and to make any such Rule of Court absolute in every case in which the same may appear to the said Court to be proper and necessary for enforcing the Payment of any of the said Duties, together with such Costs of such Proceedings as the said Court shall think proper to award and direct.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That all Courts of Justice and Judges in Ireland shall, without Allegation or Proof in that behalf, take judicial Notice of the several Types, Marks and Stamps heretofore or now kept or used, or to be hereafter kept or used as aforesaid, as and for the only true and lawful Types, Marks and Stamps for denoting the Stamp Duties which shall from time to time be payable in Ireland, and that no Record, Deed, Instrument, Writing or Printing whatever (for which the Vellum, Parchment or Paper whereon the same is or shall be written or printed, is or shall be or at the time of writing or printing the same was or shall have been by Law chargeable with any Stamp Duty, though such Law has been or shall have been repealed), shall, on any Pretence whatsoever, be pleaded or given or received as Evidence in any Court in Ireland, or admitted in any Court in Ireland to be good or available in Law or Equity, unless the said Vellum, Parchment or Paper whereon the same hath been or shall be so written or printed, shall be duly marked or stamped with the Mark or Stamp that shall be proper for such Record, Deed, Instrument or Printing respectively: Provided always, that if any Record, Deed, Instrument or Writing shall happen to be executed or written on any Stamp of an Amount greater than the Stamp Duty payable for such respective Deed, Instrument or Writing, at the time of the Execution thereof, the same shall be considered as duly stamped, to all Intents and Purposes: Provided nevertheless, that if such Record, Deed, Instrument or Writing shall be of a Kind for which separate and particular Stamps or Marks shall have been provided as aforesaid, then and in such case the same shall not be considered as duly stamped, for or in respect of having thereon any Stamp of any Amount greater than the Stamp Duty then payable thereon, unless such greater Stamp is impressed thereon shall be One of the Stamps or Marks so appropriated to such Kind of Record, Deed, Instrument or Writing.

XLIX. And for the better Distribution of Stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper in Ireland, and in order that all Persons may have the same with Convenience, and at as easy Rate, be it enacted, That the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being shall, as often as he or they shall think proper, fix the Prices at which all Sets of Stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper shall be sold; and the said Commissioners of Stamps shall stamp the Prices so fix upon every Sheet or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, and on every Piece and Sheet of Paper for by them to be sold, and that the said Commissioners shall take special Care that the several Parts of Ireland shall be from time to time sufficiently furnished with such Vellum, Parchment and Paper stamped or marked as aforesaid, so that all Persons may have it in their Election to buy the same of the Officers or Persons to be employed by the said Commissioners at the usual Rates above the said Duty, or to bring their own Vellum, Parchment and Paper to be stamped as aforesaid, or to furnish themselves from others who shall be legally entitled to sell or sell it, as they shall think fit.

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies granted to Your Majesty, and for the Support of Your Majesty's Government, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Twelfth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in ready Money (except as hereinafter is provided) without any Discount whatever upon the Importation into Ireland of the several Goods, Wares and Merchandise mentioned and set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (A.) the several several Duties of Customs inserted, defined and set forth in Figures in the said Schedule, according to the respective Amounts of the said Duties, and for and during, and from and after the several Periods and Times in the said Schedule mentioned, specified and set forth; and that on the Exportation of the said Goods, Wares and Merchandise from Ireland (except to Great Britain), there shall still be paid and allowed the several Drawbacks in respect of the said Duties of Importation, as the same are also respectively inserted, specified and set forth in the said Schedule marked (A.), and that upon the Exportation from Ireland (except to Great Britain) of the said Manufactures of Ireland defined in the Schedule marked (C.) to this Act annexed, there shall be paid and allowed the several Bounties and Allowances as the same are set forth and described in the Words and Figures therein mentioned, and that the said Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties shall be in lieu and full Satisfaction of all Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties payable in Ireland upon the Importation or Exportation of Goods, Wares and Merchandise of the like Sorts under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland immediately before the passing of this Act.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter any of the Provisions contained in Two Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the one made in the Parliament of Great Britain in the Thirty ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the other made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or any other Act or Acts in force on and immediately before the said Twelfth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, by which any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, imported from Great Britain into Ireland, or any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Ireland, exported from Ireland to Great Britain, are respectively made, to remain liable to, or are charged with, or exempted from any Duties of Customs or Excise, whether constituting or others, or by which any Drawbacks or Bounties are allowed or given in respect of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, save and except as to the Constituting or other Duties and Drawbacks granted by the said Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, and which are or may be altered by this Act, or have been or may be altered by any other Act or Acts made or to be made in pursuance of the Provisions in the said Acts of Union for that Purpose.

be reported from Ireland, at any time after the said Twelfth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and that the several and respective Drawbacks and Bounties, granted, allowed and made payable by or under this Act, or the said Schedules annexed, or any of them, shall be paid and allowed only on the Exportation of such Articles as shall have paid the several and respective Duties imposed thereon by this Act, and the Schedules (A.) and (B.) thereto annexed.

IX. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall happen that any of the Duties of Customs or Excise in Great Britain granted or made payable by any Act in force in Great Britain at the time of the passing of this Act upon any Articles on which any Duty is imposed by this Act, or the Schedules marked (A.) and (B.) thereto annexed, or any Part of such Duties in Great Britain, shall cease or determine or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, Provision shall be made that so much of the Duties of Customs granted by this Act and made payable in Ireland, as shall be equal to the Duties which shall be cease or determine or be repealed as aforesaid in Great Britain, shall in like manner cease or determine or be repealed, and shall not be payable in Ireland at any time after the time when such Duties of Customs or Excise or any Part thereof, shall cease or determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, and the Duties of Customs made payable by this Act shall be reduced accordingly.

X. And Whereas by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to grant to His Majesty Rates and Duties, and to allow Drawbacks and Bounties on certain Goods, Wares and Merchandises imported into and exported from Ireland in lieu of former Rates and Duties, Drawbacks and Bounties, it is, among other things, enacted, that whenever it shall happen that any of the Duties of Customs or Excise in Great Britain, granted or made payable by any Act in force in Great Britain upon any Articles on which any Duty is imposed by the said recited Act or the Schedules thereto annexed, or any Part of such Duties, in Great Britain, shall cease or determine or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, Provision shall be made that so much of the Duty of Customs granted by the said recited Act and made payable in Ireland, as shall be equal to the Duties which shall be cease or determine or be repealed in Great Britain, shall in like manner cease or determine or be repealed and shall not be payable in Ireland: And Whereas under and by virtue of the Exemption contained in an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act in continuation and the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, certain Temporary or War Duties of Customs on the Importation into Great Britain of Goods, Wares and Merchandises, a certain Proportion of the Duties of Customs in Great Britain on the Importation of Cotton Wool in certain Ships will cease and determine from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and it is therefore just and necessary that a certain Proportion of the Duties on Cotton Wool imported into Ireland on certain Ships should in like manner cease and determine pursuant to the intent and meaning in the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the Sums of Eight Shillings and Four pence British Currency, Part of the several and respective Duties payable upon every One hundred Pounds Weight of Cotton Wool imported into Ireland, under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, shall cease and determine, and shall no longer be payable in Ireland upon any Cotton Wool which shall be imported into Ireland in British or Irish-built Ships, registered and registered according to Law, or which shall be imported into Ireland from any of the Dominions of the Crown of Portugal in any Foreign-built Ship: Provided always, that the several and respective Duties granted and made payable under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, or the Schedules thereto annexed, on Cotton Wool imported into Ireland in any other Ships or Vessels, shall continue and remain payable as if this Act had not been made.

XI. And Whereas, by an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the first eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to permit certain Goods imported into Ireland to be warehoused or stored without the Duties due on the Importation thereof being first paid, it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees of any Goods, Wares or Merchandises enumerated and described in the Schedule to the said Act annexed marked (B.) which shall be legally imported or brought into the Port of Dublin, or into any Port in Ireland to which Tobacco may by Law be imported, to land any such Goods, Wares and Merchandises without Payment, at the time of the first Entry thereof, of the Duty on the Importation thereof: And Whereas it is expedient to permit and suffer such Goods, Wares and Merchandises to be imported, landed and imported in any Port in Ireland, although the same shall not be a Port at which Tobacco may by Law be imported: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees of any Goods, Wares or Merchandises enumerated or described in the said Table marked (B.) to the said Act annexed, which shall be legally imported or brought into any Port in Ireland whatever, to land any such Goods, Wares and Merchandises at such Ports without Payment at the time of the first Entry thereof of the Duties due on the Importation thereof, and such Goods, Wares and Merchandises may be landed or secured in any Port or in any such Place, and under such Rules, Regulations and Restrictions as the Commissioners of Customs, and Port Duties, or any two or more of them, shall from time to time order, appoint and direct; any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding: and all and every the Provisions, Rules, Regulations and Restrictions in the said Act annexed shall extend and be construed to extend to such Goods, Wares and Merchandises in every respect, to all Intents and Purposes, and if the same had been entered, landed and secured in any of the Ports in the said Act mentioned, under the Provision and Authority of the said recited Act of the first eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign.

CAP. LXXXIII.

An Act to regulate the Payment of the Duties of Customs on Foreign Goods imported into Great Britain from Ireland, or into Ireland from Great Britain; and of the Drawbacks on the Exportation of Goods the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland, having been imported into either Country from the other. [14th June 1815.]

WHEREAS by the Acts passed in the Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, it is, among other things, enacted, that His Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland shall be entitled to the same Privileges, and be on the same Footing generally in respect to Trade and Navigation in all Ports and Places in the United Kingdom and its Dependencies, and that all Duty charged on the Import of Foreign or Colonial Goods into either Country shall, on their Export to the other, be either drawn back, or the Amount (if any be retained) shall be placed to the Credit of the Country to which they shall be so exported: And Whereas Duties of Customs are imposed in Great Britain and Ireland respectively on certain Foreign Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported in British-built Ships, and higher Duties of Customs are imposed on the like Goods, Wares and Merchandise, if imported in Foreign Ships; and Doubts may arise what Duties Foreign Goods are liable to, which, having been imported into Great Britain or Ireland respectively, are afterwards imported into either Country from the other: Be it therefore enacted and declared by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That on the Importation of any Foreign or Colonial Goods, Wares and Merchandise, into Ireland from Great Britain, or into Great Britain from Ireland respectively, which shall have been previously imported from Foreign Parts into the Country from which the same shall be exported to the other, such Import Duty of Customs shall be paid and payable as if such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, had been imported from Foreign Parts either in a Foreign Ship or in a British Ship, according as they were in fact first imported from Foreign Parts into the Country from whence they shall be exported to the other.

II. And, for the Purpose of ascertaining whether any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise were first imported into Great Britain or Ireland respectively, in a British or Foreign Ship, be it enacted, That in every Cocket or Clearance of any Foreign Goods, Wares or Merchandise, which shall be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to Great Britain respectively, it shall be specified and set forth whether such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, were first imported in a British-built Ship, or in a Foreign Ship into the Country from whence they shall be so exported to the other, and the Import Duty of Customs on such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, shall be payable in the Country into which they shall be imported from the other accordingly; and if it shall not be expressed and set forth in such Cocket or Clearance of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, whether the same were in fact imported in a British Ship or in a Foreign Ship, then and in such case such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, shall be and be deemed liable to such Import Duties of Customs in the Country into which they shall be imported from the other, as if the same had been imported into such Country in a Foreign Ship; any thing in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And Whereas by the said Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, it is, among other things, enacted, that certain Articles the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Country, imported into each Country from the other, shall be subject to certain specific Duties in the said Acts mentioned, and that any Articles of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Country, which are or may be subject to Internal Duty, or to Duty on the Materials of which they are composed, may be made subject on their Importation into each Country respectively from the other, to Consuering Duties in manner in the said Acts mentioned, and certain Articles (specified in a Schedule in the said Acts contained) are subjected to the

C. 82.

Counterselling Duties therein set forth, liable to be taken off, diminished or increased, in manner in the said Acts specified; and it is provided that upon the Export of the said Articles from each Country to the other respectively, a Drawback shall be given equal to Amount to the Counterselling Duty, which shall be payable as such Articles on the Import thereof into the same Country from the other: And Whereas Duties have arisen with respect to the Drawbacks payable under the Intent and Meaning of the said Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, on the Exportation of any of the said Articles to Foreign Parts, or to the Country from whence the same were imported; Be it therefore enacted and enacted, That whenever any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland respectively, which shall have been exported into either Country from the other, shall be exported from either Country to the other, or to Foreign Parts, the Exporter of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, shall be entitled to and shall be allowed and shall receive a Drawback equal to the full Amount of the Duty, whether counterselling or others, which shall have been actually paid on such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, when the same were imported into Great Britain or Ireland respectively from each other, according to the Intent and Meaning of the said Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, increase or diminish any Drawback payable by Law on any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, Article, Matter or Thing exported directly from Great Britain or Ireland respectively to Foreign Parts, in any case where the specific Amount of such Drawback is or may be ascertained by any Act or Acts in force or to be in force in Great Britain or Ireland respectively.

V. XVIII. And Whereas by the said Act it is, among other things, enacted, that the Bounty thereby granted shall not be paid or allowed for any Herrings which (among other things) were not originally guted; and further, that the Master of any Vessel or Boat laden with Salt or other Stores for the British Herring Fishery, or any Person having Salt Stowed on Shore at any Place where the said Fishery is carried on, and intending to cure Herrings therewith, shall each of them respectively keep an Account (among other things) of the Quantity of Herrings cured every Day, and of the manner in which the same were cured; that as to say, whether they were cured, gutted or ungutted; Be it further enacted, That no Herrings shall be deemed to be gutted within the meaning of the said Act or this Act, unless they were gutted, cured and packed within Twenty four Hours after they were taken or caught.

XXI. And Whereas by the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty, it is enacted, that each Officer of the Fishery shall deliver a Copy of such Account, and of such Oath thereon as aforesaid (certified by him to be a true Copy) to the Person by whom the same shall be so delivered and verified, as by the said Act is directed; Be it further enacted, That in each of the said Acts as is above recited, he, and the same is hereby repealed; and that the said Officer shall, in lieu of such Copy, deliver to such Person as aforesaid, a Copy of so much only of the said Account as shall relate to Herrings cured gutted; and in case the Curer thereof shall produce the Whole or any Part of the Herrings comprised in such Copy to the said Officers, at the Place where the Herrings were so cured, in order to obtain thereon the Bounty hereby granted, such Curer shall thereupon deliver up the said Copy to such Officer; and in case the said Curer shall have so produced a Part only of the Herrings specified in the said Copy, the said Officer shall give him a Copy of the said Account, as far as relates to the Residue of the said Herrings; and the like Proceedings shall be had as often as any Part of the said Herrings shall be so produced at the Place where the same were cured as aforesaid; and that every such Copy as aforesaid shall be certified by the said Officer of the Fishery to be a true Copy of or Extract from the Account of the said Curer, verified by him upon Oath, specifying the date when and Place where it was so verified.

Be it further enacted, That for each of the said Act as is above recited, shall not extend to such additional Number of Barrels, or any of them, which shall be so provided, and in which such Surplus of the said Herrings shall be so repacked as aforesaid, or to the Herrings contained therein; nor to any Barrel, or the Herrings therein contained, which Barrel shall be different from that in which the same Herrings were originally cured and packed, in case such said mentioned Barrel shall have been rendered unsafe by accidental Damage to contain such Herrings; but every Barrel of such surplus Herrings, or of Herrings repacked out of such another Barrel rendered unsafe by accidental Damage to contain the same as aforesaid, shall, upon the Oath of the Curer thereof, verifying the Fact before the proper Officer of the Fishery, be deemed to be in the same Manner or Condition, within the Meaning of the said Act and the Act, as if the Barrel were the same in which the Herrings were originally cured, and on which the like Marks or Characters were set as the Fishery, as directed by the said Act.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if the Curer or Proprietor of any Number of Barrels of Herrings Bag-packed, on which the Bounty granted by the said Act or the Act shall have been allowed, shall intend to repack the same with Great Salt in the same Barrels, and as many in Addition thereto as with the original Number shall be necessary to contain the same in a repacked State, the said Curer or Proprietor shall give Twenty four Hours' Notice in Writing under his Hand, of his said Intention, to the proper Officer of the Fishery; and if upon Production of the said Herrings so repacked as aforesaid, the said Curer or Proprietor shall, upon the Request Note (which, according to such Regulations as shall be made by the said Commissioners for the Herring Fishery, he shall have delivered or caused to be delivered to the said Officer) make Oath before him that the Herrings contained in the Barrels so produced (containing the Number) in a repacked State, are the very same Herrings, without any Addition or Mixture whatsoever, that were originally in a bag-packed State contained in that Part (mentioning the Number) of the said Barrels, whosever each is branded with Marks or Characters denoting that the Bounty granted by the said Act or by this Act was allowed or paid thereon; and if the Barrels of Herrings so produced shall, upon due Inspection and Examination, be found by the said Officer to be each of them well cured, properly repacked, and in all respects such as a Barrel of White Herrings, on which the said Bounty is claimed or allowed, is by the said Act and this Act required to be, he shall cause each of the said Barrels in which the said Herrings were originally cured, and in which the greater Part thereof are now repacked, to be branded with such Marks or Characters, in addition to that which shall have been already branded thereon, as the Commissioners for the Herring Fishery shall direct, and as shall denote that the same are repacked, and by what Officer the same were inspected and examined after the repacking thereof; and the said Officer shall cause each of the Barrels in which the remaining Part of the said Herrings shall be repacked, to be branded with such Marks or Characters as by the said Act or this Act are directed to be branded thereon, in case the same were produced to the said Officer in order to obtain the Bounty granted by the said Act, and had been by him deemed to be entitled thereto, with such Addition to the same as the Commissioners for the Herring Fishery shall think fit to direct, and as shall denote that the same are so branded under the Authority of this Provision. Provided always, that no Bounty shall be paid or allowed, nor shall any Certificate be granted for that Purpose, in respect of any such Barrel or Barrels of Herrings repacked and branded with such Marks or Characters, and with such Addition thereto as last above mentioned, but that the same shall nevertheless be liable to Forfeiture in all cases where any Barrel or Barrels of Herrings, on which the said Bounty shall have been allowed, would by the said Act or this Act be liable thereto.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Herrings cured otherwise than in Bulk, shall be mixed with Herrings cured in Bulk, whether packed or not; nor shall any Herrings cured in Bulk, or any Herrings which, although otherwise cured, shall have been afterwards laid in Bulk, be packed in any Barrel or Cask, unless the Word "Bulk" shall have been first branded thereon in manner herein directed; and if any Herrings cured otherwise than in Bulk, shall be mixed with Herrings cured in Bulk; or if any Herrings cured in Bulk, or which, although otherwise cured, shall have been afterwards laid in Bulk, shall be packed in any Barrel or Cask, Barrels or Casks, unless the Word "Bulk" shall have been first branded thereon in the manner herein directed, and shall remain thereon indelibly legible; all such Herrings, with the Barrels or Casks containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery or Customs.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That when any Herrings in Bulk shall be brought or imported into any Port or Place in Great Britain from the English Herring Fishery, or from any other Port or Place in Great Britain, or in any of His Majesty's Dominions, such Herrings shall upon the Landing thereof be conveyed to a Place proper for the packing of the same, and shall there without Delay be packed in Barrels, on each of which the Word "Bulk" shall have been first branded in the manner herein directed, and shall not afterwards be laid in Bulk; and if any Herrings in Bulk brought or imported from the English Herring Fishery, or from any such other Port or Place as aforesaid, shall not upon the landing thereof be conveyed to such Place as aforesaid, or shall not there without delay be packed in Barrels, on each of which the Word "Bulk" shall have been first branded, or within Twenty four Hours afterwards shall be branded in the manner herein directed, and shall remain thereon indelibly legible, or, having been so packed, shall be afterwards laid in Bulk, the said Herrings, with the Barrels or other Packages in which the same shall be contained, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery; Provided always, that no Herrings cured or laid in Bulk, which shall be intended to be made into Red Herrings, and which on the landing thereof shall be conveyed to a Manufactory of Red Herrings, shall be required to be packed in Barrels so marked as directed by this Act; nor shall any Herrings cured or laid in Bulk, which on the landing thereof were packed in Barrels on each of which the Word "Bulk" shall have been branded in the remore barrels directed to be taken out of such Barrels as a Manufactory of Red Herrings, provided that they be immediately put in Process for being made into Red Herrings.

XXXV. And he it further enacted, That all Herrings, being the Refuse of the Manufactory of Red Herrings, shall be packed in Barrels, on each of which the Word "Refuse" shall have been branded in the manner herein directed; and all such Herrings not packed in Barrels on each of which the Word "Refuse" shall be so branded, shall remain distinctly legible, as well as all Herrings whatever mixed with Herrings of the said D. Company, whether packed or not, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery or of the Customs.

XXXVI. Provided always, That so much of this Act as enacts, that Herrings cured otherwise than in Bulk shall not be mixed with Herrings cured in Bulk, and that Herrings cured in Bulk shall not be packed in any Vessel or Cask unless the Word "Bulk" shall have been branded thereon in manner herein directed, shall not extend or be construed to extend to Herrings cured originally in Bulk, in eight Vans, Pans, Coffers, Hogsheads, or Casks of a larger Size than Hogsheads, and therein preferred in the Pickle produced by their own and Care, till the Label thereon has been packed in Barrels, and which, having been so packed in Barrels, shall not have been afterwards laid in Bulk; or to any Herrings cured otherwise than in Bulk, mixed with Herrings so cured as aforesaid.

XXXVII. And he it further enacted, That when any White Herrings, packed in Barrels or Casks, shall be imported or brought into any Port or Place in Great Britain, from any Port or Place in Ireland, the Isle of Man, or from any other Island or Colony under His Majesty's Dominion, the Barrels or Casks containing the said Herrings shall have been, or within Twenty-four Hours after the landing thereof and before the same shall be put into any Warehouse, shall be branded with such Word or Words as after mentioned respectively; that is to say, if imported from any Port or Place in Ireland, with the word "Irish"; if imported from the Isle of Man, with the word "Man"; if imported from any other Island or Colony under His Majesty's Dominion, with a Word or Words Descriptive of the Name of such other Island or Colony respectively; which Word or Words shall be branded on every such Barrel or Cask respectively in the manner herein directed, and shall remain thereon distinctly legible; nor shall any such Herrings be afterwards packed in any other Barrel or Cask, unless such Word or Words respectively as aforesaid shall have been so branded thereon as aforesaid; nor shall any such Herrings be laid in Bulk, or mixed with any other Herrings, unless the same shall be so laid in Bulk or mixed in a Manufactory of Red Herrings, for the Purpose of being made into Red Herrings; and if any White Herrings, imported in Barrels or Casks from any such Port or Place as is above mentioned, shall be found in Bulk, or mixed with any other Herrings unless as aforesaid, or packed in Barrels or Casks on which such Word or Words shall not have been branded respectively, or shall not remain thereon distinctly legible as aforesaid contrary to this Act, all such Herrings, with the Barrels or Casks containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery or of the Customs: Provided always, that nothing in the said Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Kings, or in this Act contained, relative to the Seal or Ticket of the Barrels or Half Barrels in which White Herrings shall be packed, or against their being made of Fir, or relative to the Exportation of White Herrings, shall extend or be construed to extend to White Herrings imported in Barrels or Casks from Ireland, the Isle of Man, or from any other Island or Colony under His Majesty's Dominion, such Barrels or Casks being branded in the manner herein directed.

XXXIX. And he it further enacted, That where any Word or Words is or are by this Act directed or required to be branded on any Barrel or Cask, the same shall be so branded with an Iron on the Bulge thereof, in legible, conspicuous and permanent Letters, whereof each shall not be less than One Inch and a Half in Length.

XXX. XXXI. And he it further enacted, That the Bounty of Four Shillings per Barrel granted by this Act shall not be paid or allowed for any Barrel of Herrings bung-packed, or repacked with Small Salt, which shall not contain, exclusive of Salt and Brine, Two hundred and Thirty five Pounds Weight of Fish at the least; or for any Barrel of Herrings repacked with Great Salt, which shall not contain, exclusive of Salt and Brine, Two hundred and twelve Pounds Weight of Fish at the least; And if any Barrel of Herrings, bung-packed, or repacked with Small Salt, and not containing, exclusive of Salt and Brine, Two hundred and Thirty five Pounds Weight of Fish at the least; or if any Barrel of Herrings, repacked with Great Salt, and not containing, exclusive of Salt and Brine, Two hundred and twelve Pounds Weight of Fish at the least; shall be tendered to any Officer of the Fishery, in order to obtain the aforesaid Bounty thereon, the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Fishery.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Vessel or Boat which shall be laden at any Port or Place in Great Britain with Salt in Bulk or in Barrels, intended to be used in the Curing of Herrings in Bulk or in Barrels, by the Master and Crew thereof, such Herrings having been taken by the said Master and Crew on any Part of the Coasts of Great Britain, Ireland or the Fife of Man, or purchased from by the said Master, on any Part of the said Coast, from the Crews of other British Boats by whom the same were taken, shall be deemed and taken to be a Vessel or Boat fitted out for the British Herring Fishery, within the Meaning of the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and of this Act; and where any such Vessel or Boat, having been so fitted out for the British Herring Fishery, and proceeded to any Part of the Coast of Great Britain, Ireland or the Fife of Man, where the Fishing of Herrings shall have been carried on, and of which the Master and Crew shall have taken or purchased Herrings fresh, and cured the same in Bulk or in Barrels, shall arrive laden therewith in any Port or Place of Great Britain; or where any Herrings, taken or purchased and cured as aforesaid, shall have been transhipped on to any such Vessel or Boat as aforesaid, into any other Vessel or Boat which shall arrive laden with the said Herrings in any Port or Place in Great Britain; then and in either of these cases all such Herrings shall be deemed to have been brought from the British Herring Fishery, within the Meaning of the said Act and this Act.

 Trustees for the time being, with the Consent of the Person or Persons for the time being entitled to the Reversion and Profits of the Hereditaments so to be purchased as aforesaid, to convey by way of Sale or Exchange for any other Freehold Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of a good Estate of Inheritance to be issued

WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to grant certain Duties of Excise upon Licences for the Sale of Spirits and other Liquors by Retail, and upon Licences to Persons dealing in Excisable Commodities in Ireland, in lieu of the Stamp Duties payable upon such Licences; and to secure the Payment of such Excise Duties, and to regulate the Issuing of such Licences; and to discourage the unwholesome Use of Spirituous Liquors in Ireland; certain Duties are imposed and made payable upon the several Licences therein mentioned, according to the respective times at which such Licences respectively shall be taken out, and amongst other, certain Duties are imposed and made payable on the several and respective Licences therein mentioned, which shall be respectively taken out after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen: And Whereas under the Provisions of the said recited Act, Licences may be taken out within Ten Days previous to the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, to be in force after the said Fifth Day of January: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Assent of the same, That the several and respective Duties by the said Act, and the Schedule thereto annexed, imposed and made payable upon all such Licences, if the same respectively shall be taken out after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, shall be charged and paid on all such Licences respectively which shall be taken out to be in force after the said Fifth Day of January, although such Licences respectively may be taken out and may issue at any time within Ten Days before the said Day; any thing in the said Act or in the said Schedule to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

II. And Whereas in and by the Laws in force in Ireland, at and immediately before the passing of the said recited Act of the present Session of Parliament, all Licences to sell Spirituous and other Liquors by Retail were to continue in force until the Twenty sixth Day of September next after the Date thereof: And Whereas in and by the said recited Act of the present Session of Parliament, certain Duties are imposed upon such Licences to sell Spirituous or other Liquors by Retail, as should be taken out after the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and before the Twenty sixth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and sixteen: And Whereas Persons who, previous to the said Twenty fifth Day of March, had obtained Certificates from the Clerks of the Peace to entitle such Persons to such Licences, ought by Law to have taken out such Licences previous to the said Twenty fifth Day of March, and to have paid the full annual Amount of the Duties then payable by Law thereon, but may nevertheless have sold Spirituous and other Liquors by Retail without taking out such Licences: Be it enacted, That in every case where any Person, from and after the Commencement of this Act, and before the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, shall apply for any Licence to sell Spirituous or other Liquors by Retail, upon any such Certificate which shall bear Date before the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, such Person shall, before any such Licence shall be granted to him or her, pay to the Collector of Excise upon his granting such Licence as aforesaid, and as for the Duty thereon, such Sum as under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the present Session of Parliament, and the Schedule thereto annexed, is fixed to be the annual Amount of the Duty on such Licence if taken out after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, together with the Sum of One Shilling in the Pound on the Amount of such Duty; any thing in the said recited Act, or the Schedule thereto annexed, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

III. And Whereas in and by the said recited Act of this present Session of Parliament it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no Licence shall be granted to any Person to sell Spirituous or other Liquors by Retail in the City of Dublin, or within the Civil or Real forerunning the said City, or within the District of the Metropolis of Dublin, unless the Person applying for such Licence shall obtain an Order signed by the Lord Mayor for the time being, and by One or more of the Police Magistrates of the District or Division in which such Person shall reside, that such Person applying for a Licence is a proper Person to be licensed, nor unless the Person who shall be proposed to be Sureties for the Person so applying be named in such Order, and therein approved of by such Police Magistrate or Magistrates; and that all Orders so given shall be preserved by the Clerks of the Peace of the City of Dublin, and shall be entered in a Book or Books to be kept by them for the Purpose, and such Book or Books shall be open at all times for the Inspection of any Magistrate, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, and their Officers, without Fee or Reward; and such Clerk of the Peace, or Recorder of such Order, shall deliver to the Person applying for such Licence a Certificate in the Form therein prescribed, to entitle such Person to such Licence: Be it enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, so much of the said recited Act as is aforesaid recited shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, no Licence shall be granted to any Person to sell Spirituous or other Liquors by Retail in the City of Dublin, or within the Civil or Real forerunning the said City, or within the District of the Metropolis of Dublin, unless the Person applying for such Licence shall have obtained an Order for the same signed by the Lord Mayor for the time being, and shall have and obtain a Certificate, signed by the Divisional Justices of the Division in which the

II. V. Provided, and be it enacted, That in all cases wherein a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a Court Martial, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into Execution, to order the Offender to be transported as a Felon for Life, or for a certain Term of Years, as to His Majesty shall seem meet; and if the Person so transported, in pursuance of such Order from His Majesty, shall afterwards (without Leave from His Majesty, or from the Governor or Commanding Officer of the Place to which he shall have been transported) return into or be found at large without Leave as aforesaid, or other lawful Cause, within any Part of Great Britain or Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad, other than the Place to which he shall have been transported, before the Expiration of the Term limited by such Order, and shall be duly convicted thereof, he shall suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy.

So help you GOD.'

I do. &c. to wit, That I will duly consider Justice, according to the Rules and Articles for the better Government of His Majesty's Forces, and according to an Act of Parliament now in force for the Parliament of Manx and Derry, and other Comers therein mentioned, without Partiality, Favour or Affectation; and if any Doubt shall arise, which is not explained by the said Articles, or Act of Parliament, according to my Conference, the best of my Understanding and the Custom of War in the like cases.

Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Judge Advocate, or Person offering as such at any General Court Martial do, and he is hereby required to transmit, with as much Expedition as the Opportunity of time and Distance of Place can admit, the original Proceedings and Sentence of such Court Martial to the Judge Advocate General in London, unless such Court Martial shall have been appointed in Dublin, in which case they shall be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General for that Part of the United Kingdom in Dublin; and the said original Proceedings and Sentences are to be carefully kept and preserved in their respective Offices, to the end that the Persons entitled thereto may be enabled, upon Application to such Offices respectively, to obtain Copies thereof, according to the true Intent and meaning of this Act.

XXXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted and declared, That none of the Proceedings of any General or Regimental Court Martial, nor any Entry or Copy thereof, shall be charged or chargeable with any Stamp Duty whatsoever; any thing contained in any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, his heirs, and assigns, to make and establish Articles of War, for the better Government of His Majesty's Forces, which Articles shall be judicially taken Notice of by all Judges, and in all Courts whatsoever.

XXXVI. And for the more effectual Execution thereof in the several Judges and Persons hereinafter mentioned, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Copies of all such Articles of War passed by the King's Printer, shall, from time to time, as soon as conveniently may be after the same shall have been made and established by His Majesty, be transmitted by His Majesty's Secretary at War for the time being, signed with his own Hand and Seal, to the Judges of His Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, Dublin, and Edinburgh respectively, and also to the Governors of His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations and Territories abroad.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for bringing Offenders against such Articles of War in Justice, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to erect and constitute Courts Martial as well as to grant His Royal Commissions or Warrants, to the Judges and in the manner hereinafter mentioned and expressed, for convening and authorizing others to convene Courts Martial, with Power to try, hear and determine any Crimes or Offences by such Articles of War, and to inflict Penalties by Sentence or Judgment of the same; as well within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, and the Islands thereto belonging, as in His Majesty's Garrison of Gibraltar, and in any of His Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas, or elsewhere beyond the Seas.

XXXVIII. Provided always, That no Person shall, by such Articles of War, be subjected to any Punishment extending to Life or Limb, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or any of the Isles thereto belonging, for any Crime which is not expressed to be so punishable by this Act; nor for such Crimes as are expressed to be so punishable, in any manner, or under any Regulations, which shall not accord with the Provisions of this Act.

XXXIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Officer or Soldier shall in any of His Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas, or elsewhere beyond the Seas, commit any of the Offences for which he may be liable to be tried by Courts Martial by virtue of this Act, and shall alter the Commission of such Offences or be sent to any other Station or Part of His Majesty's Dominions in the Course of Service abroad, or come or be brought into this Realm, or into Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or the Islands thereto belonging, before he be tried by a Court Martial for such Offences, such Officer or Soldier shall be tried and punished for the same at such other Station or Part of His Majesty's Dominions, or within the Realm, or any such Island as aforesaid, as if the said Officer had been committed where such Trial shall take place.

XL. And Whereas it is of essential Importance, as well to the due Observance of Public Economy, as to the Discipline of His Majesty's Forces, that they should be regularly mustered, and that the Musters should be taken with the strictest Accuracy and Exactness: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Musters shall be made, had or taken, of every Regiment, Troop or Company, in His Majesty's Service, Twice at the least in every Year, at such times as shall be appointed.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That no Commissary shall make any Regiment, Troop or Company, within the City of Westminster, and Borough of Southwark, and Liberties thereof, but in the Presence of Two or more Justices of the Peace, not being Officers of the Army, under the Penalty of Fifty Pounds, and of being discharged from his Office, unless such Justices, upon Forty eight Hours Notice being given to Six of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace residing within the City and Liberties aforesaid respectively, shall signify to attend such Muster; and in case of such Neglect, such Commissary may proceed to muster such Regiment, Troop or Company; provided that Oath be made before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace within Forty eight Hours after such Muster taken, that such Notice was given to Six Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, which Justices if attending are hereby empowered to sign the said Muster Rolls, and to take Recognizance of such Muster, and to examine the Truth thereof before they sign the same.

XLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Muster Rolls and Pay Lists which are required to be verified upon Oath, shall be sworn before and attested by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, who are hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath and swear the same, without Payment of any Fee or Reward whatever in respect thereof, either to such Justice or Magistrate or the Clerk of any such Justice or Magistrate.

XLIII. And, for preventing of Fraud and Deceit in the mustering of Soldiers, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person do make or give, or procure to be made or given any false or untrue Certificate, whereby to excuse any Soldier for his Absence from any Muster, or any other Service which he ought to attend or perform, upon Pretence of such Soldier being employed on some other Duty of the Regiment, or being sick, in Prison, or on Furlough; then every such Person, in making, giving or procuring such Certificate, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and shall be forthwith cashiered and displaced from his Office, and shall be thereby utterly disabled to have or hold any Military Office or Employment within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in His Majesty's Service; and any Certificate shall excise the Absence of any Soldier but for the Reasons above mentioned or one of them.

XLIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Officer that shall make any false or untrue Muster of Man or Horse, and every Commissary, Muster Master, or other Officer, who shall willingly or wilfully allow or sign the Muster Roll, wherein such false Muster is contained, or any Duplicate thereof; and also every Commissary, Muster Master, or other Officer, who shall directly or indirectly take, or cause to be taken, any Sum or Sum of Money, or any other Gratuity, as or for the mustering any Regiment, Troop or Company, or on or for the signing of any Muster Rolls, or any Duplicate thereof, upon Proof thereof upon Oath made by Two Witnesses before a General Court Martial, to be thereupon called (which is hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath), shall, for such Offence, be forthwith cashiered and displaced from such his Office, and shall be thereby utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in His Majesty's Service.

XLV. And it is enacted, That if any Officer or Commissary shall make any Person by a wrong Name knowingly, upon Conviction thereof before a General Court Martial, the said Officer or Commissary shall suffer such Penalties, and in such manner as is directed and intimated by this Act, upon those who shall make false Musters.

XLVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall be falsely mustered, or offer himself falsely or deceitfully to be mustered, upon Proof thereof made upon Oath by Two Witnesses, before any Justice of the Peace for the County residing near the Place where such Muster shall be made, and upon upon Certificate thereof in Writing, under the Hand of the Commissary of the Musters, or Master Masters as aforesaid, made to such Justice of the Peace, the said Justice is hereby authorized and required to commit such Offender to the House of Correction, there to remain for the Space of Ten Days: And if any Person shall willingly lend or furnish any Horse to be masted, which shall not truly belong to the Trooper or Troop in which the said Horse is falsely masted shall be forfeited to the Informer if the same doth belong to the Person lending or furnishing the said Horse; or otherwise the Person lending or furnishing the said Horse shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, upon Oath made by Two Witnesses, before some Justice of the Peace residing near to the Place where such Master shall be made; which Twenty Pounds shall be levied by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the said Justice, by Sale and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person in default, under the Overplus (if any be) to the Owner: And in case such Offender shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon Distress may be made, to the Value of the Penalty to be recovered against him, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction; then and in such case such Justice of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, either commit such Offender to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Three Months, or cause such Offender to be publicly whipped, at the Discretion of such Justice; and the said Forfeiture shall be given or paid to such Person or Persons that shall give Information thereof; and the said Informer or Informers, if belonging to the Service, shall have a Right to be discharged forthwith, if he or they shall demand the same.

XLVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Great Britain the Deputy or Deputies of the Commissary General shall, upon every Half-yearly Muster taken by him or them respectively of any Regiment, Troop or Company, in His Majesty's Service at any Place Two Miles distant from London, cause the Master Rolls of the said Regiment, Troop or Company, within Twenty four Hours after such Muster shall have been made; and shall return the Rolls to be taken by the Post or other safe Consequence, within Seven Days after their being closed, to the Office of the Commissary General of Musters, who shall, and he is hereby directed and required to transmit One Set of every of the said Rolls to the Secretary at War, One to the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Land Forces, and One to the Comptrollers of the Accounts of the Army, on or before the Fifth Day of May and the Twentieth Day of September respectively following such Half-yearly Muster: And no Alterations or Indorsements shall be made in or upon the said Master Rolls, other than in the case of Orders of Leave or Discharge of Commission, and other than involuntary Errors or Mistakes in writing or transcribing the said Master Rolls, upon Pain of forfeiting their respective Employments, and the Sum of Twenty Pounds to any Person that will sue for the same, for every such Offence.

XLVIII. And Whereas, by the Statute of Right, in the Third Year of King Charles the First, it is enacted and declared, that the People of the Land are not by the Laws to be burthened with the Joynering of Soldiers against their Wives; and by a Clause in an Act of the British Parliament, made in the One and thirtieth Year of the Reigne of King Charles the Second, for granting a Supply to His Majesty of Two hundred and six thousand four hundred fifty two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Three pence, for paying and disbursing the Forces, it is declared and enacted, that no Officer, Civil or Military, nor other Person whatsoever, shall receive from themselves preference to place, quarter or billet, any Soldier or Soldiers upon any Subject or Inhabitant of this Realm, of any Degree, Quality or Profession whatsoever, without his Consent; and that it shall and may be lawful for Subject, Seignior or Inhabitant to refuse to quarter any Soldier or Soldiers, notwithstanding any Demand or Warrant or Billeting whatsoever: But notwithstanding as at this time, and during the Continuance of this Act, there is and may be Occasion for the marching and quartering of Regiments, Troops and Companies, in several Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for and during the Continuance of this Act, and no longer, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns and Villages, and other Places within England, Wales and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and in their Default or Absence, for any One Justice of the Peace inhabiting in or near any such City, Town, Village or Place, and for so others; and such Constables, and other Chief Magistrates as aforesaid, are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty's Service, and Persons receiving Pay in His Majesty's Army, in Inns, Lodging Houses, Alehouses, Victualling Houses, and the Houses of Soldiers of War by Retail, whether Bought or Foraged, to be drunk in their own Houses, or Places thence belonging, other than and except Customs held and occupied under the Authority of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Barbours, or of the Department of the Ordnance, and other than and except Persons who keep Taverns only, being Freeman of the Company of Victuallers of the City of London, who were admitted to the Freedom before the Fifth Day of July One thousand seven hundred and fifty seven, or who then have or shall hereafter be admitted to their Freedom of the said Company in Right of Freeman or Apprenticeship, notwithstanding such Persons who keep Taverns only have taken out Victualling Licences; and all Houses of Persons selling Brandy, Strong Waters, Cyder or Metheglin by Retail, to be drunk in Houses, other than and except the House or Houses of any Distillers, who sell Houses or Places for Distilling Brandy and Strong Waters, and the House of any Shopkeeper whose principal Dealings shall be in other Goods and Merchandises than in Brandy and Strong Waters (as in such Distillers and Shopkeepers do not permit or suffer Tipping in his or their Houses), and in no others, and in no Private Houses whatsoever; nor shall any more Billets at any time be ordered than there are effective Soldiers present to be quartered; all which Billets when made out by such Chief Magistrates or Constables shall be delivered into the Hands of the Commanding Officer present: And if any Constable, Tithingman, or such like Officer or Magistrate, as aforesaid, shall refuse to quarter or billet any such Officer or Soldier in any such Private House, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier, in such case such Owner or Occupier shall have his or their Remedy at Law against such such Magistrate or Officer, for the Damage that such Owner or Occupier shall sustain thereby: And if any Military Officer shall take upon him to quarter Soldiers otherwise than is licensed and allowed by this Act, or shall do or suffer any Minister or Compulsion to do upon any Major, Constable, or other Civil Officers before mentioned, tending to deter and discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty hereby required or appointed; such Military Officer shall, for every such Offence (being thereof convicted before any Two or more of the Justices of the Peace of the County, by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses), be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Felony, and shall be utterly disabled to serve or hold any Military Employment within that Kingdom, or in His Majesty's Service; provided the said Conviction be affirmed at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the said County, and a Certificate thereof be transmitted to the Judge Advocate in London, who is hereby obliged to certify the same to the Commander in Chief and Secretary at War: And in case any Person shall find himself aggrieved, in that such Constable, Townswoman or Headborough, Chief Officer or Magistrate (such Chief Officer or Magistrate not being a Justice of the Peace), has quartered or billeted in his House a greater Number of Soldiers than he was liable to bear in Proportion to his Neighbourhood, and shall complain thereof to One or more Justices or Justices of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty, where such Soldiers are quartered; or in case such Chief Officer or Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace, then on Complaint made to Two or more Justices of the Peace of such Division, City or Liberty, such Justices respectively shall have, and have hereby Power to remove such Person, by ordering such and so many of the Soldiers to be removed and quartered upon such other Person or Persons as they shall see Cause; and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive such Soldiers accordingly.

"XIX. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, entitled As it is provided the Disorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers and providing Carriages for the Regiments of Soldiers in their March, it was amongst other things, enacted and declared, that no Officer, Soldier or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, nor any Yeoman of the Guard of His Majesty, nor any Officer commanding the said Yeoman, nor any Servant of any such Officer, should at any time thereafter have, receive or be allowed any Quarters in any Part of Ireland, save only during such time as he or they should be and remain in force Sea Port Town in order to be transported, or during such time as there should be any Commotion in any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army or any considerable Part thereof should be commanded to march from any Part of Ireland to another, or during such time or times as he or they should be on their March as aforesaid: And Whereas the Barracks of Ireland are not at present sufficient to lodge all the Forces upon in Military Establishments: And Whereas it may be necessary to station Part of the Troops in Places where there are not Barracks or not sufficient Barracks to hold them: Be it enacted, and it is hereby declared and agreed by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful, notwithstanding the said recited Act, and for the Constables and other Civil Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns, Villages and other Places in Ireland, and in their Default or Absence for any One Justice of the Peace residing in or near any such City, Town, Village or Place, and for so others, and such Constables and other Chief Magistrates as aforesaid, or in their Default, such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty's Service in Inns, Livery Stables, Ale Houses and the Houses of Sellers of Wine by Retail, to be drunk in their own Houses or Places according to licence, and all Houses of Persons selling Brandy, Strong Waters, Cyder or Mead by Retail; and where there shall not be found sufficient Room in such Houses, then in such manner as has been heretofore customary, taking Care not to billet less than Two Men in any One House, except only in case of billeting Horse or Dragoons in numbers heretofore mentioned; nor shall any Justice at any time be ordered for more than the Number of effective Soldiers pursuant to be quartered: all which Bilets, when made out by such Chief Magistrates or Constables, or Justice of the Peace, as the case may be, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Staff Officer employed, or of the Commanding Officer present; and if any Constable or other Chief Officer or Magistrate as aforesaid shall refuse to quarter or billet any such Officer or Soldier in any House not within the Meaning of this Act, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier thereof, then such Owner or Occupier shall have his or their Remedy at Law against such Magistrate or Officer for the Damage that such Owner or Occupier shall sustain thereby, and such Constable, Chief Officer or Magistrate, being duly convicted of such Offence by Indictment, shall be imprisoned for the Space of One Calendar Month; and if any Military Officer shall take upon him to quarter Soldiers otherwise than is licensed and allowed by this Act, or shall do or suffer any Minister or Compulsion to do upon any Mayor, Constable or other Civil Officer before mentioned, tending to deter or discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty hereby required or appointed, or to induce any of them to do any thing contrary to their said Duty, such Military Officer shall for every such Offence, being thereof convicted before any Two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses, be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Felony, and shall be utterly disabled to serve or hold any Military Employment whatsoever: Provided the said Conviction be affirmed at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County, or County of a City or Town, and a Certificate thereof transmitted to the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence to the Under Secretary for the Military Department in Dublin: and in case any Person shall find himself aggrieved, in that such Constable, Chief Officer or Magistrate not being a Justice of the Peace, has quartered or billeted in his House a greater Number of Soldiers than he ought to bear in proportion to his Neighbourhood, and shall complain thereof to One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty, where such Soldiers are quartered, or in case such Chief Officer or Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace, then on Complaint made to Two or more Justices of the Peace of such Division, City or Liberty, such Justice or Justices respectively shall have, and have hereby Power to remove such Person by ordering such and so many of the Soldiers to be removed and quartered upon such other Person or Persons as he or they shall see Cause, and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive such Soldiers accordingly.

L. And as very great Detriment and Inconvenience arise to the Service, from the disposing and billeting of Soldiers when on a March at a great Distance from the Place or Places where they are meant to be quartered, and contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said last recited Act, and by reason of which they are placed wide of their intended Route for the next Day's March: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at no time when Troops are on a March shall any of them be billeted above One Mile from the Place or Places mentioned in the Route.

Soldiers not billeted above One Mile from Place mentioned in Route.

L.I. And Whereas Soldiers are often billeted and quartered on the March unequally, and to the Prejudice of some of His Majesty's Subjects, by reason that the Places mentioned in the Route are on the Borders of Counties, and that the Keepers of Houses in which Soldiers may be quartered being out of the Parish or Place mentioned in the Route, although in the immediate Vicinity thereof, refuse to receive such Soldiers upon Billets granted by the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs or other Persons of such Places to whom the quartering of Soldiers belongs: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That in any such case it shall be lawful for the Constable, Tythingman, Headborough or other Person to whom the quartering of Soldiers in any Place mentioned in any Route on the Border of any County shall belong, and he and they is and are hereby required to quarter and billet all Soldiers and their Horses on their March on a just and equal Proportion upon the Keepers of all Houses within One Mile of the Place mentioned in any such Route, although some of such Houses may be in the adjoining County, in like manner in every respect as if such Houses were locally situate within such Place; and all Powers, Authorities, Clauses, Privileges, Exemptions and Immunities in this Act contained in relation to the Billeting and Quartering of Soldiers shall extend and be applied to all Billets so granted as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, and in like manner in every respect as if such Houses were locally situate within the Place mentioned in the Route: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to subvert or impinge any Constable, Tythingman, Headborough or other Person to billet or quarter Soldiers out of the County to which they belong, in any case in which any Constable, Tythingman or Headborough or other Person of the adjoining County shall be present, and undertake to billet and quarter the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County.

Billeting of Soldiers on Borders of Counties to be equal.

Penalty.

L.II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace, or any Two Magistrates, within their respective Jurisdictions, to grant or transfer any Licence for selling Ale by Retail, or Cyder or Perry, to be drunk or consumed in any House or Houses or Premises where more Houses or Premises than one shall be held together by the same Person or Persons as a Tavern, or any Licence to sell Spirituous Liquors, or Strong Waters, or Wine or Liquor by Retail, to any Person or Persons applying for the same, who shall hold any Caskin under any Lease thereof, or any Agreement or other Authority from any Two of the Principal Officers of the Board of Ordnance, or from any Two of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Barnack, without regard to the time of Year, or any Notices or Certificates specified or required in relation to the applying for or granting any such Licence; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.
